North Report

By TABATHA CARMAN

North Elementary School is planning a very special way for you to spend an evening--especially one that is close to Halloween.

On Thurs., Oct. 26, North will have a hot dog supper. The best ever hot dogs will be served from 5:30-7 p.m. At 7 p.m., we will have a costume contest for all ages. The most fun will be the dunking booth. Several North School celebrities will be at the dunking booth. For 25 cents, you can get three balls and try to dunk Ms. Talbert, our media specialist, or Mr. Hopper, our principal.

At 7 p.m., we will have a drawing for a Nintendo. Students are selling tickets for one dollar for this wonderful prize.

I can't wait for this exciting event at North School.

HISTORY PROJECT-Windi Goode, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Goode, and Shannon Hullender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hullender, performed a "rap" to "Exploration of North America" as a North Carolina history project in Alison Carswell's class at Kings Mountain Junior High school. The students "rap" in poetic fashion included the story of Christopher Columbus who "in 1492 sailed to a world he thought was brand new, sailed westward to find a sea route but found a world he knew nothing about" and including a tale about Indians, Spanish adventurer Ponce de Leon and Sir Walter Raleigh.

KM's Angela Lyon Member Of WCU Homecoming Court

Angela D. Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Lyon of Route 2, was one of seven young women elected to the Homecoming Court at Western Carolina University during student voting Oct. 11.

A senior majoring in early childhood education, Lyon is a dean's list student, member of the 1988 homecoming court and was elected Miss Catamount 1988. She participates in intramural softball. Her 1989 homecoming court nomination is sponsored by Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

A 1984 graduate of Kings Mountain High School, she transferred to WCU from Gaston College, where she was on the dean's list, was named Miss Gastonia 1987 and was secretary of the Student Government Association.

A highlight of WCU's 1989 homecoming Oct. 28 is the dedication of the newly constructed Alumni Tower, a 66-foot-tall brick structure with clock and carillon that has become the symbol of WCU's centennial year observance throughout 1989-90. At the dedication, the homecoming court will walk through the tower's arches.

Decorating Contest Set At Library

Kindergarten and First grade students are participating in a tree decorating contest in conjunction with lighting of the community Christmas Tree at the Library.

The Kings Mountain Electric Department will turn on the lights at the 40 foot tall tree at 6 p.m. on Dec. 1. They are inviting Kindergarten and First grade students in the five elementary schools to draw and color a Christmas tree and will present certificates to first place winners at each of the schools. Art teachers at East, West, North, Bethware and Grover will judge the drawings.

The winning drawings will be displayed at City Hall and at Mauney Memorial Library.

KM's Arrowood Honored At G-W

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. -- Merinda Arrowood and Robert Lawing have been selected to serve as Presidential Associates at Gardner-Webb College for 1989-90.

Presidential Associates are selected on the basis of character, leadership qualities and academic standing.

Merinda is the daughter of Lana Arrowood of Kings Mountain. She is a member of the Student Entertainment Association, vice president of the Senior class and a member of the concert choir. She was also a member of the Homecoming court.

Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Lawing. He and his wife, Karen, live in Shelby. He serves as minister of youth and children at Grassy Pond Baptist Church.

United Fund Report Due

Third report of the 1990 Kings Mountain United Fund Campaign will be given Monday at noon at a meeting of officers and division chairmen at Holiday Inn.

Chairman Ruby Alexander encourages all division leaders to attend.

Mrs. Alexander reminds citizens who may not be contacted by a volunteer that they can forward their contributions to Kings Mountain United Fund, PO Box 122, Kings Mountain 28086.
