Plant To Honor Powell

A new Martin-Marietta plant in Kings Mountain was the dream of the late Jay Powell, who was plant manager of Kings Mountain Martin-Marietta when he died May 10, 1987 after 39 years with the company.

Friday, the 18 employees in the new $1.5 million plant will mark their first week of operation in the new facility and will also formally dedicate the plant to the memory of their late "boss."

Powell's wife, Evelyn, and their sons, Jay Powell Jr., and Steve Powell will be present for the 11 a.m. ceremony where the family will be given a plaque and a dedication plaque at the plant will be unveiled in memory of Jay Powell Sr.

Don Champion, plant manager, and Darrell Carpenter, office manager, said the public is invited to attend the ceremonies on the plant grounds.

Bloodmobile Next Tuesday

The Cleveland County Red Cross will sponsor a bloodmobile visit Tuesday from 1-5 p.m. at the Kings Mountain Church of God on Parker Street.

Sandi Shockley, blood services director for the Red Cross, urges Kings Mountain area citizens to go vote and then go by the church to donate a pint of blood.

The annual fall give-in will be held Friday at the Cleveland County Historical Museum in Shelby. Hours are 12:30-4:30 p.m. and the goal is 50 pints.

The Red Cross collected 69 units of blood at the October 25th visit to Ora Mills. The goal was 85.
