Hawkins said he was sorry to see friends lose because citizens would have been pleased with performance on the school board of any candidate running for the office on Tuesday. "Someone had to lose but any of these folks would have been good to work with."

Mauney defeated challenger Tommy Bennett by 1,303 to 777 for the inside-city seat and Hawkins, with 966 votes, led the six-candidate field for two outside-city seats on the board.

Voters rejected the reelection bid of Paul Hord Jr. who placed third with 723 votes followed by Larry McDaniel with 704, Wanza Davis with 524 and Calvin Miller with 322. Houze was second highest vote-getter among the outside-district candidates with 889.

Bennett congratulated Mrs. Mauney, Houze and Hawkins and pledged his support in their upcoming efforts as school district trustees.

A total of 2,489, or 29.2% of the registered vote of 8,519 school district voters, went to the polls.

The three board members will be sworn-in on Dec. 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the KM District School's Office on Parker Street.

County's Veteran's Day Service Slated

Cleveland County Veterans Council will sponsor the annual Veterans Day ceremony at 11 a.m. Saturday on the north side of the old Courthouse. In event of rain, the service will be held inside the Cleveland County Historical Museum on the Courthouse.

The public is invited. Rev. Royce Ballew, pastor of Waco Baptist Church, will make the principal address. Patriotic music will be presented from 10:30 until 11 a.m. by the Shelby High School Band under direction of Pat Mason.

A U. S. Marine Corps Color Guard from the U.S. Marine Corps Training Center in Charlotte will present the colors. Wanda Webber will sing "The National Anthem" and the invocation will be given by Rev. Ben Davis. Mayor George Clay will give the welcome and World War I veterans and other guests will be recognized. Rev. Allen Davis will present special music and pronounce the benediction.

Placing of wreaths will be done by Mary Francis Cothran, representing American Legion Auxiliary; Linda Carver of AMVETS; Renee Jones of DAV Auxiliary and Francis Tallent of VFW Auxiliary.

Shelby High School Band will play "Taps" to close the ceremony which will end with retirement of colors by the U.S. Marine Corps Color Guard.

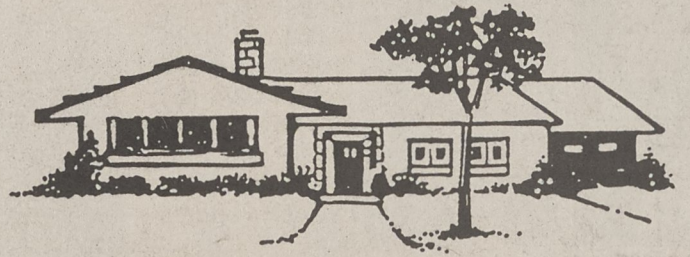

In connection with local Veterans Day ceremonies, Governor James Martin has issued a state-wide proclamation encouraging employers to "Employ A Vet."

Timber Program

A panel of forestry specialist from N.C. State University and the North Carolina Forestry Service will present a program on storm damaged timber November 9 at 6:30 p.m. at the Catawba County Library in Newton.

the Association, after conversion, will continue to offer its wide range of customer services to savings members, borrowers, and the general public from its existing offices. Whitaker further stated that no change will be made in the associations current policies, management, or in the status of any savings account or certificate of deposit as a result of the conversion. Savings accounts will continue to be insured by the Savings Association Insurance Fund, the successor to the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, after the conversion; the contractual terms of such laws will remain that same existed prior to the conversion.

Members having deposits in First Federal as of June 30, 1989, will be granted subscription rights to purchase capital stock in the converted institution's holding company under the Plan of Conversion. Other members, both depositors and borrowers, will also be granted subscription right to purchase stock in the conversion. The value of the stock offering and the number of shares to be issued will be determined by an independent appraisal of the Association as required under the Plan of Conversion. Information relating to the stock offering will be contained in the prospectus and proxy statement sent to members of the Association.
