KM FAST BREAK - Tank Roseboro (21) leads the fast break for Kings Mountain Junior High in Bi-County Conference Middle School game with Crest Thursday at the KM gym. KM won 60-49.

Junior High Boys Going Strong In Bi-County Loop

The Patriots defeated East Lincoln 74-29 Wednesday and Crest 60-49 Thursday to run their unbeaten string over the last three years to 30 games.

KM also defeated Ellenboro 71-37 last week in a scrimmage game.

The Patriots have won the last two Bi-County Middle School Conference titles under Gary Blake and Bill McDonald and new coach Mike Thombs is hoping his club can make it three in a row.

Rodney Falls was the big gun in last week's wins, scoring 15 points against East Lincoln and 20 against Crest.

Others scoring against East Lincoln were Charles Briggs with 14, Tank Roseboro 13, Marcus Bell 10, Kasey Holland 8, Sharee Hopper 6, Bryan Leftwich and Lamont Littlejohn four each, and Albert Perkins and Maurice Jarrett two each.

Following Falls' 20 against Crest were Roseboro 12, Hopper 11, Briggs 10, Bell four, Holland two and Jarrett one.

In the scrimmage game with Ellenboro, Falls had 19, Roseboro 14, Hopper nine, Bell eight, Briggs seven, Holland, Perkins and Shannon Johnson four each, and Leftwich two.

Following Falls' 20 against Crest were Roseboro 12, Hopper 11, Briggs 10, Bell four, Holland two and Jarrett one.

KM Wrestlers Whip Burns

Kings Mountain High's wrestlers opened Southwestern 3-A Conference action Friday night with a 57-13 victory over Burns.

The Mountaineers, 9-0 overall, were scheduled to face North Gaston last night. They travel to East Gaston tonight for a match against the second-ranked 4-A team in the state. They return home to host Shelby Friday and R-S Central Tuesday.

The third-ranked Mountaineers ran up an early lead against the Bulldogs and were never headed.

KM Grapplers Beat Wildcats

Kings Mountain High's wrestlers ran their record to 2-0 in the Southwestern 3-A Conference and 11-0 overall Tuesday night with a 58-6 victory over North Gaston.

The Mountaineers won the first 11 bouts before North Gaston's Larry Davis pinned KM's Jermaine Grier in the 189-pound match.

Winning for the Mountaineers were Tee Cole, Bill Foard, Bo Phongs, Robbie Ruff, Mike Byers, Andy Hollifield, D.J. Williams, Chris Henson, Timmy McClain, Victor Bell, Scott Belcher and Tony Young.

The Mountaineers travel to East Gaston tonight for a non-conference match against the state's second-ranked 4-A team. The Mountaineers host Shelby Friday and defending SWC champion R-S

Twenty years ago rock 'n' roll superstar Eddie Wilson disappeared when his car plunged off a bridge. Trying to escape his past, Eddie changed his name to Joe West and moved to Montreal. However, the past will not die. Eddie's former record company releases newly discovered tapes from Eddie's last album and mounts an "Eddie Lives" campaign. Meanwhile, Joe West has become both mentor and nucleus for a new rock 'n' roll band. The band dreams of making it big without knowing that their enigmatic leader is the real Eddie Wilson. In the poignant and dramatic climax Eddie comes to terms with his past, himself and his music.
