Have you ever watched children flying their new kites on a blustery Saturday in early March? A myriad of colors, shapes and sizes sail through the sapphire sky. Excitement fills the air. Many of those children spent their entire allowance on a kite, for they knew March was finally here. They had faith in that magical wind. They invested all they had in that unseen force, believing that it would bring them hours of joy.

God, like the wind, is an unseen force. If we have faith in Him and invest in this faith by giving our lives to Him, He will renew us with His strength, and our lives will take on new dimensions.

If you will visit God's house this week with the faith of a small child, He will not disappoint you, for in Isaiah 40:31 God promises us we "...will soar on wings like eagles..."
