

Chestnut Ridge Children Excel In School Projects

The children in the Chestnut Ridge Community have been making themselves, their parents and Tryon Elementary School proud these past few weeks.

Jeana Moore won second place in her fifth grade class with her poster on soil and water conservation. Jeana also won honorable mention in the Gaston County Women's History Awareness Awards for her composition. She was presented a Susan B. Anthony dollar and a certificate. The compositions were submitted from grades five through nine in Gaston County Schools. Jeana is the daughter of Debbie and Mike Moore.

Lachelle McLemore and Kim Stewart were also among the five chosen from Tryon School to participate in the ninth Gaston County Elementary Music Festival which was held at the Ashbrook High auditorium. The 100 participants were chosen from all the Gaston County sixth grades. Lachelle is the daughter of Sammy and Millie McLemore and Kim's parents are Eddie and Susan Stewart.

Kim also won the Color the Weather contest on WBTV. Kim's Sunday School class, which is taught by Wyona Pearson, submitted entries. She received two $5 gift certificates from McDonalds and was automatically entered in the grand drawing which will be a trip to Florida.

Tryon, won first place at the school for her poster entry in the Soil and Water Conservation Contest. Her poster also won third place in the county.

Kelly Stewart, also daughter of Eddie and Susan Stewart, won third place at the school for her entry in the Safety Belt Contest.

Susan Stewart and her daughter, Kim, will also be taking a trip to the outer banks with the Tryon sixth grade.

Wedding bells have rung for Katie Anthony. Katie, who is the daughter of Tony and Charlotte Anthony of Kings Mountain, was married to Scott Jones of Kings Mountain. Scott's parents are Ted and Charlotte Jones. Scott works in Shelby and Katie is training to be a nurse. Elmer and Mary Martin, members at Chestnut Ridge Baptist Church, are Katie's grandparents.

The Gleaners Class will be sponsoring an egg hunt for the children of the church on Sat., April 14. The class will furnish everything and the children will only need to bring their baskets. The hunt will begin at 2 p.m.

Sunrise Service will be held at the church cemetery on Easter morning, April 15. Breakfast will follow in the fellowship hall.
