Jim Anderson To Give Program At KM Library

Jim Anderson, historian at Kings Mountain National Military Park, was guest speaker at Wednesday's meeting of Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter DAR at Mauney Memorial Library.

In his presentation on the flag, he talked about Betsy Ross, who designed the first flag of the United States of America, a flag which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "The Star Spangled Banner."

Introducing the program, Vera Hardin noted that she can trace kinsmanship to Miss Ross, who was in the tailoring business.

Mrs. Eugene Roberts, Regent, reminded members that June 14 is Flag Day and asked them to fly flags at their homes and encourage businesses to fly the flag.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lynch was hostess and served refreshments carrying out the Easter motif.
