

Wrestling, Other Events Set At KM Center

The Kings Mountain Recreation Department has announced the following programs. For more information, call 739-9631 or 734-0449.

*The weight room is available to the public for a $10 monthly fee. You must call the Recreation Department for reservations.

*Kung Fu classes are held on Mondays and Thursdays from 7-8:30 p.m. The fee is $20 per person or $40 per family.

*The Table Tennis Club meets on Monday nights from 7-9 p.m. There is no fee but you must furnish your own paddle.

*Scuba classes begin on Thursday, April 19. The department and Steve Hoyle will begin a six-week course with class work at the center from 7-9 p.m. and the water portion at Neisler Natatorium on Saturday mornings.

Both courses are offered by certified teachers.

*Professional wrestling will be held April 21 at the Community Center. Matches include Bad Boys against New Wave; C.C. Rider against Buford T. Darling; Tommy Landell (the Undertaker) against Lance Taylor (the Candy Man); Buddy Landell (Nature Boy) against Brodie Chase, and others. Tickets are $6. Children under six will be admitted free.

*A Red Cross lifeguard training course will begin Monday, May 7 at Neisler Natatorium. This is the new certification for persons interested in pool and/or water front lifeguard positions and requires approximately 33 contact hours to complete. Gordon Edwards, KMHS swim coach, will conduct the program which continues on May 8-11, May 14-16, May 18, and May 21-23 from 6:30-9:30 p.m. To qualify for the program the following prerequisites are necessary: Fifteen years of age on or before the beginning of the course; swim 500 yards continuously using each of the following strokes for at least 50 yards: crawl, breaststroke, elementary backstroke and side-stroke; surface dive to a minimum depth of nine feet and bring a 10-pound diving brick to the surface; surface dive to a minimum depth of five feet and swim underwater a minimum of 15 yards; tread water for one minute.

Certification requires that participants pass the written test with 80 percent minimum score, successfully complete final skills test, and successfully complete or show documentation of the new American Red Cross Standard First Aid Course (First Aid/CPR combination). The standard First Aid Course, which is not a part of the Lifeguard training, will also be sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Department on Saturday, May 12, at the Community Center beginning at 9 a.m. Both the First Aid and Lifeguard courses will be conducted on a fee basis.

*There is currently a need for qualified, responsible individuals for a variety of summer jobs in the Kings Mountain area. For more information on the certification and the city's employment opportunities, contact the Center at 734-0449.
