covered with lace and seed pearls, ended in a gathered sash which was fitted at the hips and flowed over a slim sheath skirt. The long, puffed sleeves, accented with seed pearls and sequined Alencon lace, were pleated at the shoulders and tapered to the covered buttons at the wrist. The back of the gown was finished with a candy-box bow and three tiers of crystal pleated fabric reaching to the hemline. Her headpiece was a cap of silk illusion encrusted with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascading bouquet of white sweetheart roses, cymbidium orchids, stephanotis and baby's breath mixed with maidenhair fern and ivy.

Leigh Mauney Davis of Statesville and Kathlynn Mauney Kiebel of Littleton, Co., sisters of the bride, were bridal attendants. Mrs. Davis chose a pale pink waltz-length summer dress trimmed with eyelet embroidered lace at the round neckline, sleeves and scalloped hemline. Mrs. Kiebel chose a periwinkle blue two-piece dress with scooped neck, elbow length sleeves and soft pleated skirt. They carried spring bouquets of pink alstroemeria and sweetheart roses, lavender and white freesia, daisies, baby's breath and ferns.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Gene Dennis Krist of Denver and Stephen A. Mauney of Kings Mountain, brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frederick Mauney of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride who is granddaughter of Mrs. Carl F. Mauney of Kings Mountain and Mrs. John M. Wagner of Statesville. She graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and is employed as Production Manager of TNT Thermography Inc., Lakewood, Colorado.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh John Matheson of Evergreen, Colorado. A graduate of Colorado School of Mines in Golden with a B. S. degree in Mining Engineering, he is employed as Field Engineer for Vibra-Tech Inc. of Denver.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner April 20 at Kings Mountain Country Club.
