KMH Employees Enjoy Social

Over 175 Kings Mountain Hospital staffers and medical personnel were treated to a strawberry shortcake social in the hospital's private dining room Thursday afternoon.

The berries were picked and the cake was baked and served by members of the KM Hospital Auxiliary. The chocolate strawberry shortcake was a hit, along with the popular sour cream pound cake variety. The refreshment tables were covered with strawberry-patterned cloths and arrangements of camellias, pansies, peonies and strawberry baskets.

Orientation for new auxiliary members will be held in May. Call the hospital if you are interested in the training.

A rummage sale will be held in August to raise money for special patient equipment. If you have items to donate, call the hospital, 739-3601, or contact Mrs. Betty Frost, auxiliary president.

Lees Honor Couple With Dinner Party

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Lee III and son, Michael, honored Julie Yarbro and Quinton Rikard at a dinner party at their home recently.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Yarbro Sr., parents of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rikard, parents of the groom. Other guests were family members and friends of the couple.
