

Pro Wrestling Saturday At KM Armory

TV stars from the Professional Wrestling Federation will return to Kings Mountain for a championship card at the National Guard Armory on Sat., June 9. Action begins at 8 p.m. Tickets are on sale at the Armory, One Hour Cleaners and Allen's Flower Shop for $7. Tickets at the door are $8.

The main event will be a bunkhouse stampepe but two title matches are also on the line. The Italian Stallion, with Manager Claudio Montrose, will defend his heavyweight belt against the Russian Assassin and Gorgeous George South will put his junior heavyweight title on the line against Carolina's own David Isley.

GORGEIOUS GEORGE SOUTH To wrestle in Kings Mountain Saturday

There will be special appearances by The Hillbilly, The Cruel Connection and Baby Doll.

The Italian Stallion calls for all his "ponies" to come out and support his bid to retain the heavyweight title.

"I'd like to thank everyone for their support in past matches here," he said. "I want all my little ponies out there to say no to drugs and alcohol. That's not the right road to go down."

The Stallion has been in professional wrestling for seven years. Prior to that, he was a two-time AAU national champion, member of the Olympic team, and played middle linebacker for the Dallas Cowboys.

"I came to the U.S. when I was eight years old and grew up on the streets of Detroit," he said. "I grew up with street gangs and that's not the way to go. I had to fight my way to a better life."

Shrine Golf Tourney Saturday

The fifth annual White Plains Shrinettes Golf Tournament will be played Saturday at Kings Mountain Country Club. The tourney will be a four-person Captain's Choice format and there will be a 9 a.m. shotgun start.

Entry fee is $35 per person and includes green fees. Carts are $9 per rider.

Prizes will be awarded to the top three teams. In case of a tie, a score-card playoff beginning on hole number one will determine the winners.

Prizes and awards will be presented at a Dinner-Dance Saturday at the American Legion. Steak will be served from 7-8:30 p.m., followed by the awards presentations. The dance will be from 9-midnight.

The cost of the dinner-dance is $30 per couple.

All proceeds go to Shrine charities.

Entry forms may be obtained at the Kings Mountain Country Club pro shop or you can call 739-5871.

Cancer Golf Tourney Planned

Two times are now available for golfers wanting to enter the 1990 Cleveland County American Cancer Society Men's Golf Tournament at River Bend Golf Club June 20.

The format is four-man teams playing in three divisions. Division I uses the two best ball gross scores for teams whose lowest handicap player is seven or below. Division II utilizes the two best-ball net scores for teams whose lowest handicap is 8-16. Division III uses the two best-ball net scores for teams with all players having 17 handicaps and above.

The entry fee is $45 per person, including green fee and carts. Winners in each division have the opportunity to enter the state championship American Cancer Society tournament competition at "The Pearl" course at Calabash Sept. 8-9.

Special prizes will be awarded for closest to-the-pin on Par 3's plus a hole-in-one contest will be held on No. 3.

For more information, contact Todd Newton at 484-8036 (days) or 487-9857 or Phil Wallace, Golf Pro, Riverbend Golf Club at 482-4286.

"Kids have so many things against them," said South. "The main thing is to get a relationship with the Lord and go to church. The Lord's been in my life for the past 10 years and he's my best friend."

South said he is constantly booted in the ring for some of his questionable tactics. "But in a way that's a blessing," he said. "Outside the ring the kids listen to me and I get a lot of opportunities to talk to them and tell them that there's no dream they can't reach."

"I feel sorry for kids growing up today," he went on. "It's hard on them. They have to struggle. I've got two small boys of my own and I want them to listen but sometimes they don't listen to dad. I hope a couple years from now there will be some athlete that they can look up to and that he'll tell them what I'm trying to tell other kids right now."

South said any non-profit group wanting concession rights at the June 9 match may call him at 536-4418. The Stallion, South and other wrestlers from the PWF are available for local appearances and fund raisers and may be called at the same number.
