

Bethware Field Day

Bride-Elect Honored At May 28 Luncheon

Elizabeth McGill, June bride-elect of Dr. Robert Cross, was honored May 28 at a bridal luncheon at Holiday Inn by Mrs. Tom Trott and her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Blanton.

The 18 guests toasted the bride-elect, who wore a coral and ivory pleated skirt and sweater and was presented a corsage of coral daisies by the hostesses.

Tables were arranged with Gerber daisies and ivy carrying out the coral theme of the wedding. Placecards were also decorated in the wedding colors.

Present as special guests were Mrs. John C. McGill, mother of the bride-elect; Miss Frances McGill of Clover, S.C. and Miss Meredith McGill of Raleigh, sisters of the bride-elect; and Mrs. Martin Hall of Clover, S.C.

Enjoy your pool without the bother of chlorine.
Pour pleasure into your pool with

BAQUACIL

low maintenance, chlorine-free sanitizer/
algistat that works in your water for weeks.

Dosage of BAQUACIL is usually required about every two weeks, in many cases only every 3-4 weeks. BAQUACIL is unaffected by sunlight and high temperatures. It is more stable than chlorine, so it lasts much longer. You won't get burning eyes, unpleasant odor, or bleached hair and swimwear. You will get clear, sparkling water with a pleasant, "soft" feel...and more time to enjoy it!
