Awards Day Held At Central School

Christie Hughes, Erin Anderson, Katie Benton and Misty Smith won top academic awards and trophies from the Sixth Grade at Central School and Ross Thomas, Saeng Philavanh, Michelle Fujita and Kenny Bridges received top academic awards and trophies among Seventh Grade students at the annual Awards Day.

Thomas won three awards: the 7th grade math award, the 7th grade science award and the 7th grade academic excellence award. Other 7th grade winners were Philavanh, who received the language arts award; Michelle Fujita who won the Social Studies award and Bridges who won the Good Citizenship award.

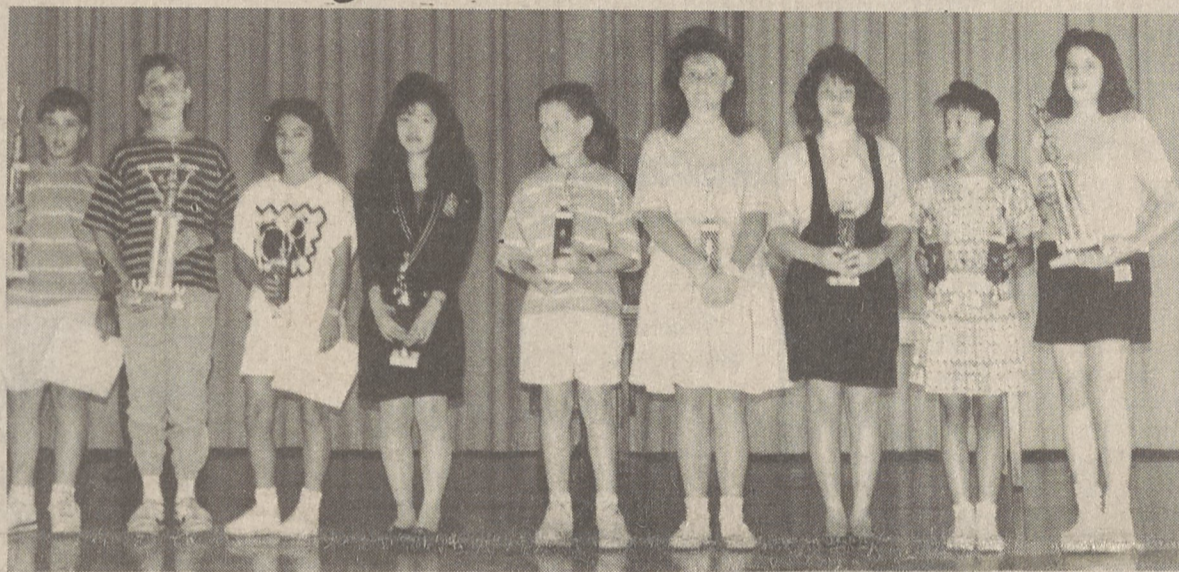

Sixth grader Erin Anderson won both the Social Studies and Math awards and Christie Hughes won the 6th grade academic excellence award. Misty Smith won the Science award and Katie Benton won the Language Arts award.

For the first time, the school presented the Care and Courage award to Keith Foster, a student whose bravery helped avoid an automobile accident. Foster had accompanied his father, a truck driver, on a trip when the elder Foster suddenly became choked on a piece of candy. Young Foster grabbed the wheel of the truck and maneuvered it off the highway.
