MRS. KENNETH E. DEVENEY JR.

Grayson-Deveney

Pleasant Grove Baptist Church of Shelby was setting for the Saturday wedding uniting Marie Hope Grayson and Kenneth Eugene Deveney Jr. in marriage.

Rev. Joey Tomlin officiated the double-ring, candlelight ceremony. Frances Beam was organist, Christine Hamrick was pianist and Tammy Hamrick and Brent Bingham were vocalists for the program of nuptial music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an elegant gown of rich, bridal satin and lace designed with sweetheart neckline bordered with lace, Victorian sleeves trimmed in lace and pearls and jeweled bodice which extended to an A-line skirt. Cascading ruffles enhanced the back of the skirt which spread to a cathedral train. She carried a colonial cascade bouquet of Sonja roses, Alestromeria lilies and streamers of satin ribbon.

Tracy Green of Shelby was the bride's maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Angie Grayson and Amy Grayson, both of Shelby, Angie Whisnant of Casar and Sandra Daves of Lawndale.

All the attendants wore tea-length apricot satin formals and carried nosegays of summer flowers in peach, purple and yellow. Lisa Bingham was flower girl and Stephen Hicks was ringbearer. Erin Hicks distributed wedding programs.

Kenneth Eugene Deveney Sr. of Shelby was best man. Groomsmen were Tracy Wood, David Deveney, Billy Grayson, all of Shelby, and Ron Parker of Lawndale.

The bride's parents hosted the reception after the ceremony in the church memorial building.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal party Friday evening at the church memorial building.

After a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, the newlyweds will be at home in Shelby.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Grayson of Shelby are parents of the bride, who is a 1988 graduate of Burns High School. She is employed by Fasco of Shelby. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grayson of Shelby and Mrs. Ann Taylor of Shelby. ### Hospice Training To Begin Hospice of Cleveland County has scheduled a volunteer training class to begin July 9 at the Shelby Chamber of Commerce Building, 200 South Lafayette Street. The class will meet for eight consecutive Monday evenings.

There is no fee and no obligation to become a Hospice volunteer. Class sessions will be taped so those missing a session can make the class up by listening to the tape.

The patient count for Hospice is around 30. During the past two years the patient load has increased 41 percent. Approximately one-fourth of the patients served are from the Kings Mountain area and there is a great need for volunteers in that area. Other areas served include Lawndale, Polkville and Casar where there is also a critical need for volunteers.

To register for Hospice volunteer training classes, call 487-4677 or attend the first class session.
