Volunteer Appreciation Dinner Honors 73 At Senior Center

The Kings Mountain Senior Center honored 73 volunteers Saturday at its sixth annual Volunteer Appreciation Brunch. Volunteers were served hot chicken salad, egg rolls, fresh fruit, bran muffins, lemon eclair, banana punch and coffee.

Aging Director, Monty Thornburg, praised volunteers for donating 3,000 hours to the Senior Center in the past year and stressed the importance of their duties. Volunteers assisted the Senior Center Staff this year by transporting home delivered meals, working as telephone receptionist, blood pressure clinic nurses, health screeners, Senior Center records clerks, distributing commodity foods, and driving clients to medical appointments.

The highlight of the event was the announcement of the recipient of the Volunteer of the Year Award. This year's winner was Mrs. Pauline Bridges, Senior Center participant who had volunteered over 175 hours by assisting the Senior Center staff in the delivery of home delivered meals. Pauline was presented a plaque with this year's motto "Always By Your Side" for her service. All volunteers were presented a certificate of appreciation and a single yellow long stem rose.

Thornburg challenged the volunteers with a Volunteer Wish List for 1990-91. New volunteer position he hoped to be filled from his list included a Volunteer Volunteer Coordinator, Volunteer Senior Center Records Clerk Coordinator, and a Volunteer Telephone Reassurance Coordinator.

Special guest speaker for the event was June Barbour, Public Relations Director for the North Carolina Division of Aging in Raleigh. Other guests included

Mayor and Mrs. Kyle Smith, Commissioner and Mrs. Elvin Green, Commissioner Norma Bridges and Commissioner Fred Finger. Thornburg also recognized Senior Center staff members Sharon Eaker, Charles Walker, Flossie Powell, Margaret Bowles, Margie Pursley and Lue McClain.

Featured groups will be from Lighthouse Pentecostal Holiness Church and the Singing Hayes Family.

Holiness Christian Mission at 215 Blanton Street will celebrate Homecoming Day on Sunday with a special song service at 2:30 p.m.
