CPO JOE REYNOLDS

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.—Memorial services for Chief Petty Officer Oliver Joe Reynolds, 62, Kings Mountain native, were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Clairemount Mortuary in San Diego, California. He died Aug. 15, 1990 at the Naval Hospital in San Diego after a short illness.

The Officers Club, of which he was active, led the military burial rites at Fort Rosecrans Cemetery in San Diego.

Retired in 1967 after 22 years with the U. S. Navy, he was a supervisor in the Mechanics Department of P. S. A. Airlines in San Diego. He joined the Seabees at the age of 17 and transferred to the U. S. Navy Aeronautical Division, where he earned his college education as an aeronautical engineer. He was stationed on Okinawa, Japan, and in Vietnam and was aboard the U. S. S. Kitty Hawk when the ship was ripped by fire and explosion. During his youth he worked at Mauney Mills in Kings Mountain and W. K. Mauney, his guardian, signed the papers for him to join the U.S. Navy.

Son of the late Charles C. Reynolds and Pearl Jeanette McDaniel Reynolds Anderson, he was reared in the Salem, Va. Lutheran Orphanage. Twenty-seven years after the death of his parents, he was reunited with his family at a reunion in Kings Mountain planned by his sister, Lila Reynolds Croft, Kings Mountain's first woman funeral director who worked at Sisk Funeral Home in Kings Mountain for 11 1/2 years before retirement. Separated when they were children at the death of their father, Mrs. Croft had been reared in Kings Mountain by her uncles, Ed and Howard Whitaker, and their sister, Myra Faye, had been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray of Ridley Park, Pa.

"I never will forget that reunion day," said Mrs. Croft, who for reasons of health was unable to fly to California for the funeral services. "At one time Joe, his baby brother, and his brother-in-law were all stationed overseas at the same place and didn't know the other was there," she said.

Surviving are his wife, Hellen S. Reynolds, also a retired Navy officer; daughter, Linda Carlson of East Meadows, Long Island, N. Y.; son, Harry J. Reynolds of Breago Springs, Calif.; sisters, Lila Reynolds Croft of Kings Mountain and Myra Faye Reynolds Black of Fredricks, Pa.; brother, Clyde F. Anderson of Albany, Ga. and five grandchildren.

The Reynolds family resides at 1367 Antiem Street, San Diego, California. Memorials may be sent to the local chapters of the American Heart Association and the American Cancer Society.
