A large satin bow enhanced the back of the tiered skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was draped from a jeweled headpiece and she carried an elongated bouquet of white and peach roses and Stephanotis.

Lisa C. Smith attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Sharon Blanton, Karen Roper, Leslie Yarbrow and Lisa Austin, all of Kings Mountain.

All the attendants wore tea-length formals of peach bridal satin featuring sweetheart necklines cut low in the back enhanced by two satin bows and tapered sleeves. They carried brass candleholders with crystal globes and lighted ivory candles.

The bridegroom's father, Merle Eugene Braunns of Andover, Ohio, was best man.
