Wedding Day Luncheon Honors Kim Sisk, Bride-Elect

A bridesmaids luncheon honoring Miss Kim Sisk, August 11 bride-elect of Edwin Braunn's, was held on her wedding day at the home of Mrs. Harold Crawford on Bethlehem Road.

Entertaining with Mrs. Crawford were her daughters, Mrs. Lisa Smith and Mrs. Amy Davis.

The Crawford home was beautifully decorated in the wedding colors of peach and ivory and greenery.

As guests arrived they were served punch in the den and later enjoyed lunch in the dining room and sunroom.

Favors, which were crystal song-bird bells tied with peach ribbon and baby's breath, were used to mark each place.

Miss Sisk took the occasion to present gifts to her attendants and other members of the wedding party.

Special guests were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Gilda Testa, the bridegroom-to-be's mother, Mrs. Kitty Braunn's, and the bridegroom-elect's sisters, Mary Ella Ryan and Merla Jewell, all of Ohio.

Lawn, Garden Shower Honors Engaged Couple

Kim Sisk and Edwin Braunn's, whose wedding took place Aug. 11th, were honored Aug. 4 at a lawn and garden shower at the home of Lisa and Chuck Austin in Kings Mountain.

The 25 guests presented them with gifts.

Guests enjoyed punch, meatballs, vegetables, chips, mints and dip from a decorative table set up in the pool area which was surrounded by flower baskets and tables overlaid with pink tablecloths.

Ushers were Myke Holt, Cecil Kirby, David Singery and Trent Testa, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother chose an emerald green Scott McClintock tea-length formal and a corsage of peach roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a blue lace dress and wore a corsage of peach roses.

Amy C. Davis presided at the register and Betty Putnam directed the wedding.

A beautifully-appointed reception was held after the ceremony at Holiday Inn and music was provided by Chip-N-Dale's of Gastonia.

After a wedding trip to Charleston, S. C., the newlyweds are at home at 120 Wells Street in Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the after-rehearsal dinner on Friday night before the wedding at Kings Mountain Depot.
