

MRS. DOUGLAS JAY RAMSEY

Sellers-Ramsey

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Jay Ramsey, who were wed Sept. 22, have returned from a wedding trip to Florida and are residing at 120 McGinnis Drive in Grover.

Leslie Elaine Sellers became Mr. Ramsey's bride in a 7 p.m. candlelight wedding in Macedonia Baptist Church. Rev. David Philbeck officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Evelyn Bridges was organist for the program of wedding music and Michael Chambers and Mrs. Laura W. L. were vocalists. The special music included the duet, "Household Faith." Mrs. Lail sang "Looking Through the Eyes of Love" as mothers of the bride and bridegroom were seated by ushers and "Wind Beneath My Wings" as a dedication to the parents of the bride and bridegroom from the couple. Chambers sang "I've Waited A Lifetime." The Lord's Prayer" was the benedictional prayer.

Donald Sellers Sr. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's traditional gown of white satin featured a V neckline complementing long sleeves that came to a point over the hand accented with Schiffler lace leading to a V back with delicate pearl buttons. A full skirt swept from a Basque waist to a cathedral length train with magnificent display of imported lace in the pyramid at the front skirt and the scattered appliques over the train flowing to an elegant border of scalloped lace edged all around. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses, ivy and baby's breath.

Mrs. Sherri S. Fort of Owensboro, Ky. was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paula McPherson, Miss Angela Lyon, Miss Debbie Hawkins, Miss Dana Blalock, Miss Anissa Jones and Ms. Gina Stone, all of Kings Mountain.

Tara Fort, niece of the bride, was flower girl; Master Zack Meek of Smyrna, S. C. was ringbearer and Master Nathan Fort, nephew of the bride, carried the Bible.

The bridal attendants wore crystal teal satin formals featuring a bateau neckline enhancing long sleeves that came to a point over the hand. The fitted bodice complimented a diamond key-hole back further enhanced by a butterfly bow. The full satin skirts tapered to T-length for a delicate silhouette. They carried arm bouquets of teal green and white flowers.

Best man was the bride's brother, Donald Sellers Jr. of Kings Mountain.

Ushers were Brian Ramsey, brother of the bridegroom; Duane Brown, Kale Bagwell, Shane Shockley, all of Kings Mountain; Randy Reeves of Gastonia and Hilton Fort of Owensboro, Ky., brother-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Sherry Hayes registered guests and Mrs. Debbie Brown distributed programs.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. George Sellers Jr., directed the wedding. Chelsea Fort, niece of the bride, was special attendant.

The bride's parents hosted the beautifully-appointed reception after the ceremony, where the bridal colors of teal green and pink and white were featured in decorative details. Assisting in serving the cake, punch and party pickups were Mrs. Ken Cloninger and Mrs. Bill Sellers, aunts of the bride; Mrs. Beverly Tignor and Mrs. Cindy Meek.

The bridegroom's parents, Mrs. Renee Byars and Jerry Ramsey, hosted the rehearsal dinner Sept. 21 at Western Steer Family Steakhouse. The bride and bridegroom took the occasion to give gifts to their wedding attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sellers Sr. of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. A 1984 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School, she received her B.S. in Business Administration and a minor in Communications from Appalachian State University in 1988. She is employed as a sales clerk at See Sellers, 8-A.

Parties Honor Leslie Sellers, Doug Ramsey

Miss Leslie Sellers and Doug Ramsey, whose wedding took place Sept. 22, were honored at numerous bridal parties prior to their wedding day.

A miscellaneous shower was held Aug. 12 at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. Ken Cloninger. Entertaining with Mrs. Cloninger were Mrs. George Sellers Jr. and Mrs. Bill Sellers, aunts of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Sherri Fort of Owensboro, Ky., sister of the bride-elect.

Present as special guests were Mrs. Freda Sellers, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Renee Byars, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, and Mrs. Alma Sellers, grandmother of the bride-elect.

The hostesses presented Miss Sellers with a corsage of white carnations to pin to the shoulder of her party dress.

Guests enjoyed punch, nuts, cake squares, vegetable sandwiches and chicken salad tarts from a refreshment table decorated in pink, green and white.

Mrs. Beverly Tignor, cousin of the bridegroom, assisted by Mrs. Cindy Meek, cousin of the bridegroom-to-be, hosted a miscellaneous shower at the Tignor home Aug. 19. Guests called between 2 and 4 p.m.

Mrs. Freda Sellers, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Renee Byars, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, were special guests.

Miss Sellers was presented a white carnation corsage.

Punch was served with vegetable trays, nuts, and sandwiches from a decorated refreshment table. Members of the bridal party hosted a miscellaneous shower Sept. 4 at the home of the bride-elect. Entertaining together were Miss Angela Lyon, Mrs. Paula McPherson, Miss Anissa Jones, Miss Dana Blalock, Miss Debbie Hawkins, Miss Gina Stone and Mrs. Laura Lail.

The hostesses presented Miss Sellers with a five piece place setting in her china pattern and a wedding photograph book.

Guests called between 6:30 and 8 p.m. and enjoyed punch, sausage balls, vegetable trays, cake squares, mints, nuts and cheese wafers from a table decorated in the wedding colors of teal green and pink.

Mrs. Freda Sellers, mother of the bride-elect, was a special guest.

Miss Sellers was presented a pink carnation shoulder corsage.

Co-workers from First Carolina Federal Savings Bank honored the bride-elect at dinner on Sept. 13 and showered her with miscellaneous gifts for her new home. They also presented Miss Sellers with a white carnation corsage.

The bridegroom-to-be was honored at a lawn and garden party Aug. 19 at the home of Shell Byars. Don Sellers Jr., brother of the bride-elect, was co-host.

Guests presented the bridegroom-to-be with items for outdoor use and enjoyed party pickups, including hot wings and cold drinks.
