YAP Celebrates At Pizza Inn

The Board of Directors of the Youth Assistance Program of Cleveland County, a Governor's One-on-One Volunteer Program, celebrated one successful completion at a dinner at Pizza Inn on Oct. 8.

YAP volunteer Bradine Tyner and her youth, Dusty, received certificates of friendship for completing an average of four hours per week for one year in YAP. Board chairman Trip Boinset and board member David Teddy presented the certificates. YAP recruits, screens, trains and monitors adult one-on-one volunteers to be matched with a youth who has been referred by Juvenile Court, law enforcement personnel or other child oriented agencies.

Anyone interested in making a difference in a young person's life, please call Melanie McDaniel, executive director at 482-2315 or 482-3144. YAP is a United Way agency.
