Hudson's Opens New Store

Hudson's Department Store has opened the new "Hudson's for Men" store at 1 W. Warren St. on the Courtsquare in Shelby. This location was originally occupied by the Charles Store, Wise Fishions and most recently by Hudson's Fabrics.

The 5,000 square foot store has been totally renovated, refixedured and relighted and will offer fashions for men, young men, prep sizes, plus all shoes for men. The store will offer a greatly expanded selection of size ranges, styles and brands for today's man.

Particular attention has been given to big and tall men including the installation of specially designed oversized dressing rooms.

Larry Greer, with over 20 years experience in men's clothing, will be the store manager.

Although operating in separate quarters than the main department store, customers of Hudson's for Men will be extended the same charge account, credit, layaway and service advantages that their department store customers have enjoyed since 1946.
