Parties Honor Amanda

Amanda Moss was honored at a number of parties prior to her Dec. 1 wedding to Benjamin Melvin. A family cookout was held on Oct. 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Moss of Kings Mountain. Amanda received a corsage of red and white roses and the couple received household gifts for their new home. The cookout was held around the pool and deck and grilled hamburgers with all the trimmings were served.

Mrs. June Melvin was hostess at her home on Nov. 10 at a miscellaneous bridal shower for Amanda. On arrival, Amanda was given a corsage of red and white roses. The wedding colors of red and white were carried out in decorations. Cake squares, punch and party pickups were served.

Amanda was honor guest at a lingerie shower on Nov. 16. Hostesses were Charlene Dover and Elaine White of Blacksburg, S.C. and Barbara Bush of Kings Mountain. They presented Amanda with a corsage of red and white roses. The refreshment table was spread with white linen and was centered with an arrangement of red and white flowers. Cake squares, party pickups and punch were served from crystal appointments.

A family bridal shower honored Amanda on Nov. 22 at the home of her aunt, Susan Greene of Grover. Mrs. Greene hosted a beautifully appointed dinner and Amanda received miscellaneous gifts for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Melvin hosted a rehearsal dinner at the Western Steer in Shelby on Nov. 30. Guests were members of the wedding party. Amanda took the occasion to present gifts to her attendants.
