The first report cards of the calendar year and the semester report cards were given out January 24. Report cards showed the semester, nine weeks and the exam grades. Report cards will be given again April 11. Parents are encouraged to talk with their children about their grades and, if necessary, call the school (734-5667) to schedule a conference with teachers.

A Parent Teacher Organization meeting was held Tues., Jan. 29. The PTO discusses the school and environment in which students are taught.

The math fair is an event in which students prepare exhibits in which mathematic experiments were made at home. It was due Mon., Jan. 28. Exhibits were open to the public that evening and the next night for the PTO. Results of the competition will be reported next week.

The Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) essay contest was held recently. Students wrote about the Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the United States. Some sixth, seventh and eighth grade English classes competed. There were six local winners and two district winners.

Winners in the eighth grade were Haley Bridges, first; and Nicole Setzer, second. Seventh grade winners were Christopher Henderson, first, and Andy Welborn, second. Sixth grade winners were Michael Bumgardner, first, and Jason Crawford, second.

The winning entries then went to district competition and Kings Mountain had two winners. Michael Bumgardner won first place in the sixth grade and Christopher Henderson was second in the seventh grade.
