'Enchanted Evening' At KMLT

"Some Enchanted Evening" will be all the title suggests, say members of Kings Mountain Little Theater who are raising the curtain on the Rodgers & Hammerstein musical Thursday night at 8 p.m. in Park Grace Auditorium.

Performances are also on Friday and Saturday nights at 8 p.m. and Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

"The rehearsals are going great and the music of 'Some Enchanted Evening' is tremendous," say directors Linda Dixon and Julia Wood. Lynn Echols is accompanist for the musical selections which include some of the most successful and best-loved music on Broadway.

The production is funded in part by a North Carolina Grassroots Grant.

Adding to the show will be a black and white set with performers in black and white formal tuxedos and evening attire.

Featured in the cast are David Brinkley, Jeff Grigg, Jenny Muench, Judy Whisnant, Christy Dixon, Catherine Clore and Allen Queen. Children who performed as the Von Trapp children in the recent KMLT production of "Sound of Music" will sing popular music from the show.

For reservations call the Cleveland County Arts Council at 484-2787. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.
