BRANDON JIMSON

Youth choir honors Brandon Jimson, 5
The Youth Choir of Long Branch Baptist Church of Grover sponsored a benefit program for five-year-old Brandon Jimson March 3.

Mark, who is ill, is the son of Mark and Tina Jimson.

Special music was presented by young people from various churches. Churches, industries and lodges participated.

Directors of Long Branch Choir are Mrs. Rachel Reid, Mrs. Louise Black, Mrs. Deborah Smarr, Mrs. Trina Adams and Ms. Sharon Camp. Pastor is Rev. Larry Dixon.

Brandon's family say they want to thank people of Kings Mountain for their prayers and financial support.

SCHOLARSHIP-Ricky White, 17, who ranks second in his graduating class at Bessemer City High School, has won a $6,000 scholarship from National Association of Recording Merchandisers which represents the recorded music industry.

White's parents, Rick and Kathy White of Gastonia, are employees of Philips and DuPont Optical. Employees children are eligible for the scholarship.

White attended Governor's School and Boys State last year and is a Morehead nominee. He plans to major in environmental science as a pre-law student.
