Talent show Friday at Barnes

"Downhome" talent will be the program Friday night at 7 p.m. at B. N. Barnes Auditorium. A variety of entertainment will be presented in a two-hour program sponsored by KM Parks & Recreation.

"For the donation of $1 to the recreation program you will enjoy a fun-filled evening of entertainment for the whole family and by people you know," says Denise Falls of the Parks & Recreation Committee.

There will be no prizes offered but Falls says all competitors are prize winners.

Falls says her sign-up list of entertainers is growing. Some of the performers will be KMHS teacher Craig Mayes, who will present a comedy routine; Jimmy Maney, Eric Wright, Heidi Hamrick, Jeff Putnam, who will sing; Erin Lovelace, Chastity Moss, Anne Marie Senter, and Heather Melton, who will dance; Andrew Gregory will present a clogging routine and Chastity Moss and Mindy Reynolds will present a gymnastic routine. Jason Trammell and band will perform and Kathy Pittman will present a baton routine. Other citizens who want to participate should call 734-0449.

City Commissioner Scott Neisler will be master of ceremonies. Concessions will be available at intermission.

Falls said the city recreation department is planning a special event each month and next month a gospel group will perform for the public.

Program at CCC

Cleveland Community College will present an original production entitled "The Flip Side of Drinking" on Wednesday, May 22, 12 noon, in the College auditorium.

Written by Virginia Greene DePriest and the students in the College drama class, the skit is concerned with the periods of drinking and driving. Featured are CCC students Linda McDaniel, Margot Moshier, Hope Sheets, Dale Collins, and Chris Rabb. There will be a statistical information sharing session on drinking and driving in Cleveland County, as well as a question and answer period, at the end of the half hour presentation which is free and open to the public.

Concerned citizens are urged to attend. For more information, contact Virginia Greene DePriest at 484-4025 or 482-4254.
