

Powell and Acuff go to White Lake

Chris Powell and Wray Acuff of the Kings Mountain FFA chapter were participants of the 28th annual N.C. FFA State Leadership Development Conference held July 1-5 at the R.J. Peeler FFA Camp at White Lake. The conference is sponsored by the N.C. FFA Association and was attended by approximately 325 members, advisors and guests. Throughout the week, members attended leadership development training sessions that provided instruction related to parliamentary procedure, public speaking, officer responsibilities, and opportunities in the FFA. Nightly sessions were conducted with a focus on citizenship and patriotism. The local chapter advisor is Craig Mayes. The FFA is a national organization of 387,042 members in 7,634 local chapters preparing students for careers in science, business and technology of agriculture. FFA activities and award programs provide opportunities for students to apply knowledge and skills acquired through agricultural education. FFA members strive to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. This year's theme for the FFA is "FFA - Leadership for a Growing Planet."

Speaking seminar at Gardner-Webb

Gardner-Webb College is offering a seminar to help area residents acquire public speaking skills August 6-7 from 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. each day. The seminar will be led by John Brock, Visiting Professor and Director of Theatre, and is limited to the first 25 applicants. Training will begin with direction in research and organization of a speech and will encompass instruction in the effective and proper presentation methodology of both informative and persuasive speaking. Emphasis will be placed on how to make a strong conclusion and the motivation of an audience. Participants will be coached in effective methods for reducing stage fright. The final session will be devoted to each participant delivery a four or five minute speech. Each speaker will be furnished a video tape of the speech along with a detailed critique and commentary for future reference. The seminar is designed for either the novice or the experienced speaker and will be held in Dover Library. The cost of the seminar is $169 which includes meals. For more information, call the college at 434-2361.
