Arrowood-Grant

Thompson Gardens at Shelby was setting for the 2 p.m. wedding July 13 uniting Madge Merinda Arrowood and Odell William Grant Jr.

Rev. Eugene Ware officiated. Cari Anders of Wyattsville, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Terry Gold of Shelby and Tracy Stewart of Kings Mountain presented the wedding music.

The wedding party walked a bridal path across a bridge decorated with ivy and rainbow-colored ribbon and vows were exchanged in a decorated gazebo. The bride, escorted by her brother, Jeff Arrowood, wore a long, flowing, white gown of bridal satin made by Mrs. Robert Smith. The dress was enhanced by lace, seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried rainbow colored flowers. For "something old," she carried a beaded handbag belonging to her maternal great-great grandmother Griffin.

Mark Grant of Tampa, Fla. was best man. Mike Whitaker officiated.

Donna Arrowood was her sister's maid of honor and wore a long length pink taffeta dress and carried a rainbow-colored bouquet. Midge McCalley of Bessemer City, Va., Janet Lindsay of Charlotte, N.C., and a friend of Kings Mountain and Terra Eaker of Shelby were bridesmaids and wore rose, lavender, blue and peach taffeta formals and carried rainbow bouquets.

The bride's mother wore a silk dress in shades of green, pink and blue with green slippers and a rainbow-colored corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a orange dress with matching slippers and a rainbow colored corsage. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Madge H. Arrowood, wore a rainbow-colored floral dress with black accessories and a corsage.

Erica Beam was flower girl and Danielle Grant, niece of the bridegroom, was trainbearer. Jennifer Norman of North Wilkesboro was honorary bridesmaid. Todd Newton of Charlotte and Angie Whitaker of Gastonia registered guests. Kathryn Beam of Shelby directed the wedding.

The bride's family hosted the garden reception. Silk cloths overlaid the refreshment tables and a rainbow-colored cake, baked and cut by Linda Martin of Kings Mountain, was cut and served with orange punch and party pickups.

The bride is the daughter of Ms. Lana Arrowood and granddaughter of Mrs. Madge Hardin Arrowood of Kings Mountain. A 1986 graduate of Kings
