

Gwaltney nears field goal mark

North Carolina kicker Clint Gwaltney of Shelby will go into the 1991 season nearing the school career record for field goals after kicking a Tar Heel season-record 21 last year.

Gwaltney, a 5-11, 171-pound senior, now has 32 field goals in his first three years in Chapel Hill. Brooks Barwick set the school record of 37 in 1983.

Last fall Gwaltney was second in the nation in field goals, making 21 of 27. He tied the school single-game record with four against Maryland. His season total was the second-highest in ACC history, topped only by the 23 of Clemson's Obed Ariri in 1980.

Heels to play 15 home games

Fifteen home games, most in school history, and a December trip to Europe highlight the UNC 1991-92 basketball schedule.

The regular season opener is Nov. 24 against The Citadel in Chapel Hill. Then comes a tough test at Houston on Nov. 27. Another highlight of the early schedule is a showdown with powerful Seton Hall at The Meadowslands on Dec. 4.

On Dec. 15 Carolina will play host to Florida State in the Seminoles' first ACC games. FSU officially joins the conference this year.

The Tar Heels go to Europe for three games over the holiday break, playing two games in the Canary Islands on Dec. 23 and 24 and one in Frankfurt, Germany on the 27th.

The schedule:
Nov. 9 - Blue-White Game; 15 - High Five America (Carmichael Auditorium); 17 - Soviet National; 24 - The Citadel; 27 - at Houston; 30 - Towson State.

Dec. 1 - Cornell; 4 - Seton Hall (at the Meadowslands); 7 - Central Florida; 15 - Florida State; 17 - at Jacksonville; 21-29 - European trip to Canary Islands and Germany.

GW gets money

BOILING SPRINGS- Gardner-Webb College's Program for the Blind is the recipient of a $3000 contribution by Southern Bell.

The contribution will make possible the purchase of two new pieces of technology to assist visually impaired students - a Braille 'n Speak and a Miniature Electronic Visual Aid.

The Braille 'n Speak is a portable talking computer operated by commands entered in Braille on a seven-key Braille keyboard. The device, which costs approximately $900, can be used as a talking computer terminal, a Braille-to-print transcriber, a word processor or a talking calculator.

Blind students will carry the Braille 'n Speak to their classroom lectures and then transcribe notes for future study. The device will eliminate the time consuming process of audio recording of lectures, making note-taking much easier for the students.

The Miniature Electronic Visual Aid (MEVA) provides a portable magnification system for visually impaired students who have some vision.

The hand-held camera transmits a magnified image to a four-inch flat screen CRT monitor. The MEVA with a price tag of about $2100, will allow students to read their own study materials rather than relying on the services of a personal reader. This gives the students more independence.

Dove season set

The N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission has set a mourning dove season that begins on Labor Day and includes a 70-day dove season for 1991-92.

The Commission also approved a 12-bird daily bag limit and a possession limit of 24 birds. Season dates are Sept. 2-Oct. 5, Nov. 25-30, and Dec. 13-Jan. 11. The season allows for hunting from half an hour before sunrise to sunset.

State wildlife officers will strictly enforce state and federal baiting laws, but will not inspect any field at the landholder's request to determine whether it is baited for migratory game birds.

First-time hunting license buyers are reminded they must complete a hunter education course sponsored by the Wildlife Commission before buying a hunting license. Hunter education became mandatory July 1. A person who wishes to buy a hunting license this year must produce an old hunting license, sign a statement that he or she was previously licensed, or show proof of certification in a hunter safety course.

UMPIRE

The local all-star teams go off to district or state tournaments, Anderson's their biggest fan.

One of his goals is to someday umpire a state tournament. He has called numerous district events and hopes to be chosen as a member of the umpiring crew for the 1993 district Dixie Youth tournament which will be held here.

Unlike most youth umpires, Anderson has training and holds certification.

"Back in 1968 when Roy Pearson was the City Recreation Director, a team of instructors from Gardner-Webb College came down to the community center and put on an umpire's clinic," he recalled. "I attended all the classes and was certified to umpire baseball and softball.

"I called some junior high baseball games with the late Devoil Butcher," he went on. "He was a dear friend of mine and taught me a lot. He had a tremendous influence on my career."

Butcher, who came to Kings Mountain in the early 1960s to umpire in the professional Western Carolinas League, lost his life in an automobile accident.

While many prospective umpires may laugh at the $10 to $20 a game paid in the little leagues, Anderson says "you don't see me complaining."

But, of course, he wouldn't. He'd do it for nothing!
