

KM gives Shelby the boot

Kings Mountain Middle School opened its soccer season Monday afternoon with a 2-1 victory over Shelby. The photos on this page shows some of the action on a bright, sunny day at the KM Middle School field.

couple of Shelby players down the sidelines.
