roasting and reception. Her mother, Mrs. Ethel Franklin of Hickory was absent due to ill health but her sisters and brothers-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Randall, were in the large audience in the church fellowship hall of friends and kin.

Music has been a love of Edie Bridges for many years. She plays both piano and organ but at the organ she finds the highest expression of her multi talents. She has played the organ for four pastors at Kings Mountain Baptist, including Rev. Marion Dubose, Rev. James Wilder, Rev. J. C. Goare and Rev. Bob Collins. Until January 1955, she played for First Baptist Church together with Mrs. Ellen Elam, taking a leave of absence from the organ to have children.

"Her music has always given such pleasure to those of us in the congregation," said Mrs. Hord, who said Sunday's program was both nostalgic and humorous.

TIMMS

Since everybody is so conscious of what they should spend their money for these days, we thought we'd pass along some thoughts made recently by an economic analyst on family spending.

He said in his opinion, among the best buys today are furniture and other home furnishings - and his reason is that one should consider the knowledge that furniture and home furnishings last longer and therefore give the purchaser a longer run for his money.

He said it makes sense to him to put money into something of a permanent or semi-permanent nature such as furniture, where the cost is amortized over a long period of time, and where you get continued pleasure from it.

He also brought out the point that it makes sense to put one's money into a place where people spend as much time as they do in their homes.

In any case, whether you're thinking about economics or simply the comfort and beauty of your home, remember that we not only have good furniture values and selection, but we're aware of helping you consider your budget, and getting you the most for your money.
