

Weddings

MR. AND MRS. PHILIP AARON MALTBÄ

Wright-Maltba

Three Forks Baptist Church in Taylorsville was the setting for the December 28 wedding uniting Dorian Nicole Wright and Philip Aaron Maltba in marriage.

Rev. David B. Horton, the couple's pastor, officiated the double-ring ceremony for which wedding music was presented by Shane Jenkins, pianist; Chad Hefner, trumpeter; Donnie Rogers and Joye Spencer, vocalists, the bride's aunt and uncle, and by the Three Forks Men's Quartet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wright of Route 2 Taylorsville and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herschel L. Wright Sr. of Kings Mountain and granddaughter of Mrs. Howard Rogers of Taylorsville and the late Mr. Rogers. She is a junior at Lenoir Rhyne College at Hickory.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Maltba of Route 8 Taylorsville and grandson of Mrs. Ella Mae Baird of Conover, Mrs. Margrette Truesdale of Granite Falls and Baxter Baird of Granite Falls. He is a draftsman with Leucadia, Inc., General Marble of Lincolnton.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of ivory satin was accented by Alencon lace with beads and sequins and featured a dropped waist. The tiered semi-cathedral train was attached to a large satin bow. Her fingertip illusion veil was draped from a beaded and sequined tiara. She carried her mother's white Bible topped with a cascade of white sweetheart roses, mini red carnations and ivy.

Ashli Wright of Taylorsville was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a deep green tea length gown of velvet and satin and carried a brandy glass with a lighted red candle trimmed with red poinsettias.

Bridesmaids were Renata Maltba of Taylorsville, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Kim Ferrell of Catawba, and Miss Angie Milstead and Mrs. Sarah Mayberry, both of Taylorsville, friends of the bride. Their gowns and bouquets were identical to the maid of honor.

MRS. ROBERT SCOTT BRADLEY

Lail-Bradley

Kings Mountain Baptist Church was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Sarah DeBruler Lail and Robert Scott Bradley.

Rev. Robert Collins officiated the ceremony for which the wedding music was presented by Tracy Bolin, organist, and Mrs. Patti Collins, vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory silk and Brussels lace featuring a Sweetheart neckline with Basque waist and spaghetti straps. A lace motif adorned the bodice with pearls and sequins accenting the long, sheath skirt enhanced by a trumpet kick pleat accented with matching fabric bow. The matching jacket was designed with mandarin collar and Gibson Girl sleeves and was trimmed with lace, sequins and pearls. A pointed wreath of pearls and silk flowers held a French illusion pouf veil and she carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of ivory Enchantment Lilies, red miniature carnations, ivory stephanotis, cream roses, and baby's breath with red and ivory streamers.

Stephanie Lail, daughter of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Kristy Bradley of Lincolnton and Andrea Lail of Kings Mountain. Hollan Bradley and Kendall Bradley were flower girls and Jonathan DeBruler was ringbearer.

All the attendants wore ivory tapestry tea length formals designed along Victorian lines with Queen Anne collar and lace bodice. A dropped waist and bustle enhanced the dresses. They carried hand-tied bouquets of red miniature carnations, cream roses, ivory cushion poms and baby's breath with red and ivory streamers.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Rick DeBruler and Doug DeBruler, both of Kings Mountain, and David Bradley and Chuck Bradley, both of Lincolnton.

The reception was hosted by the bride's family in the fellowship hall of the church.

Ivester-Wilson

Second Baptist Church was the setting December 22 for the wedding of Cynthia Ann Ivester and James Nile Wilson Jr.

Rev. Eugene Land officiated the ceremony for which music was presented by Evelyn Bridges, organist, and Julie Phillips and Mike Chambers, soloists.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal wedding gown of white bridal satin enhanced by sequins and beads and carried a bouquet of red and white roses and baby's breath.

Shannon Sellers was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Ashley Chambers and Tonya Blalock, both of Kings Mountain, Jamie Gordon of Pineville and Tammy Izzi of Shelby.

All the attendants wore holiday red backless formals with red satin gloves and carried bouquets of white poinsettias and red roses.

Emilee Willis was flower girl and Alan Michael Justice carried the rings.

Billy Earnheart of Pineville was best man. Ushers were Jason Ivester, Wayne Ivester, Kenny Phillips and Scott Phillips.

The bride's parents hosted the reception after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall.

The bridegroom's mother hosted a rehearsal dinner December 21 in David Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ivester of Reep Road are parents of the bride, who is the granddaughter of Mrs. Maggie Ford. A graduate of Kings Mountain High School and King's College, she is employed by Shelby Family Practice.

The bridegroom is the son of Ginger and David Stowe of Gastonia and Jimmy Wilson. Grandson of Jim and Kate Martin and Mrs. Mary Millwood, he is a graduate of South Mecklenburg High School and is employed by Duke Power Company.

The newlyweds, at home in Kings Mountain, plan a February wedding trip to Disney World in Orlando, Fla.
