Mars Hill Choir to perform

The Mars Hill College Choir will be in concert at the First Baptist Church, Belmont, on Sunday, February 23, at 7:00 p.m. This auditioned choir is made up of forty-three members, both music majors and non-music majors.

The choir is under the direction of Dr. Joel F. Reed, Director of Choral Activities at Mars Hill. The accompanist is Cathy Adkins, Professor of Piano at the college.

The choir will be performing works of John Rutter, Gabriel Faure, William Byrd, Thomas Tallis, Christopher Tye, and others. They will also be singing spirituals and American folk songs.

The Mars Hill College Choir is one of the Southeast's best collegiate choirs, traveling extensively through the South and as far away as Europe.

The program is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Jerry Olson at 825-3758.

While working at a shoe store in downtown Truro, Nova Scotia, I noticed outside the bakery shop next door, a little boy standing on the hot air register in his bare feet, trying to keep warm.

I was unsure whether or not to invite the boy into our store, or just what to do with him, when a lady came by. After a few words with the boy, she brought him into the shoe store. She bought him new shoes and heavy woolen socks for which he tried awkwardly to thank her. "Are you God's wife?" he asked his benefactress.

Taken back by the question, she took some time before replying, "No, I'm just one of His children."

"Well, I knew you must be some kin to Him," he said as he thanked her again and ran out the door.
