

Weddings

MRS. JAMES A. LITTLEJOHN

Humphery-Littlejohn

Barbara Wilson Humphery and James A. Littlejohn exchanged marriage vows Saturday in Macedonia Baptist Church.

The 2 p.m. ceremony was officiated by Rev. David Philbeck, pastor of the church.

The bride's son, William Paul Humphery, gave her in marriage. Best men were Charlie Mashburn and Roy Phillips, both of Kings Mountain and longtime friends of the bridegroom.

Sandy Adams of Mount Holly was matron of honor and Hazel Ramsaur of Lowell was maid of honor.

Gennifer Wilson, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Rick Wallace of Kings Mountain ushered with the bride's brother, Wayne Wilson, of Mount Holly.

The bride and bridegroom received wedding guests at a reception after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall.

After a cruise to The Bahamas, the newlyweds will reside in Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Littlejohn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brooks of Mount Holly and the late Lewis H. Wilson and granddaughter of Mrs. Flossie Blackwell. A graduate of South Point High School, she is employed by Freightliner in Mount Holly.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Sarah C. Pendleton of Kings Mountain and the late James E. Littlejohn. He is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and is employed by Lithium Corporation of America.

The rehearsal party was hosted by the bridegroom's family at Hillbilly BBQ in Gastonia Friday night.

MRS. JOHN FLETCHER WEBSTER

Lee-Webster

Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher Webster, who were wed December 14, are residing in Erwin after a wedding trip to Charleston, S. C.

Ginger Catherine Lee became Webster's bride in a 3 p.m. candlelight ceremony in Unity Advent Christian Church in Four Oaks. Rev. Billy Keene officiated.

Mrs. Marty Blanton of Kings Mountain was pianist and the bridegroom's father and Lynette Justice of Riegelwood were vocalists. Laura Jones of Shelby was handbell soloist for the program of wedding music.

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents and sister, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk shantung featuring a wedding band neckline and Renaissance sleeves. The fitted bodice had a Basque waist and was adorned with Alencon lace, embroidered pearls and iridescent sequins with a full skirt enhanced by a candy box bow at the back waistline and a Cathedral train edged with matching lace, pearls and sequins. A fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a bridal cap of Alencon lace, pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of Rubrum lilies, pink and white roses, Dendrobium orchids and ivy.

Julie Lee was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jennifer Lee of Four Oaks, cousin of the bride; Heather Nelms of Louisburg, Anissa Saffriet of Maryland, Beth Wease of Kings Mountain, and Shawn Wright of Shelby, cousins of the bridegroom; and Augusta Webster of Kings Mountain, sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

All the attendants wore tea-length gowns of plum iridescent taffeta featuring plum velvet bodices, long, tapered sleeves and bateau necklines with a Vee back accented by a criss-cross and bows of taffeta. They carried cascades of Rubrum lilies, pink roses, pink miniature carnations and Moniacino.

Kasey Parker of Four Oaks, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a tea-length gown of taffeta and velvet similar to the bridesmaids and carried a basket of miniature pink carnations, purple statice and Moniacino.

Honorary bridesmaids were Tonya Deal and Amy Parrish of Benson, Darlene Langston of Bentonville and Amanda Jackson and Jenifer Wilks of Newton Grove. They carried arm bouquets of white fugi mums and greenery with their street-length dresses.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Groomsmen were Ashley McLamb and Scott McLamb, both of Benson, cousins of the bride; Craig Pettit of East Bend and Paul Ware of Georgia, cousins of the bridegroom, and Barry Webster and Ted Webster of Kings Mountain, brothers of the bridegroom. Steven Ray of Kings Mountain, nephew of the bridegroom, was junior groomsmen.

The mother of the bride wore a dusty mauve brocade jacket and full length tea length chiffon skirt with a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother chose a tea length gown of pink chiffon accented with pearls and a white cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

The pulpit of the church was decorated with white columns and spiral candelabra interspersed with emerald jade trimmed with magnolias. A focal arrangement was Rubrum lilies, white, pink and white carnations, white fugi mums, pink gladioli, larkspur, Gerber daisies, purple lietrus and lavender statice. The bridal couple's parents joined them in lighting the unity candle.

A Christmas tree adorned with pink poinsettias, mauve bows, strings of pearls and white lace was decorated in memory of the bride and bridegroom's late grandparents. The tree was topped with an angel of

See Webster, 8-B

MRS. MARK LANTZ REEP

Hughes-Reep

Love's Grove Baptist Church of Durham was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Kelley Suzette Hughes and Mark Lantz Reep.

Rev. Berk Wilson heard the exchange of vows in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Best man for the bridegroom was his father.

Barbara Wilson attended the bride as matron of honor. Renee Larrieu was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Wanda Hollick of Cary and Linda Elliott of Chapel Hill.

Ushers were Jerald Rush of Raleigh, Mike Reep of Knightdale, brother of the bridegroom, and Marvin Gibbs of Clemson, S.C.

The bride's parents hosted the reception after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall.

The Garden Room of Ballentine's in Raleigh was setting for the rehearsal dinner hosted by the bridegroom's parents Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston D. Hughes of High Point are parents of the bride, who is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is employed as training instructor for First Union Mortgage in Raleigh.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Huitt Reep of Kings Mountain. A graduate of N. C. State University at Raleigh, he is employed as project planning engineer for the N. C. Department of Transportation in Raleigh.

After a wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains, the newlyweds will reside in Raleigh.

NOTICE TO BRIDES

The Herald welcomes your engagement and wedding information for publication in each week's paper. We ask that you follow these guidelines:

The deadline for all engagement and wedding information and photos is 5 p.m. Friday. All photos should be 4 X 5 black and white. High quality color pictures will be accepted. There is a $5 picture preparation fee.

Wedding and engagement information should be submitted on forms which can be obtained at the reception desk or in the women's department of the Herald. The forms should be typed or neatly written and include the name, address and telephone number of the bride.

Errors in engagements and wedding should be brought to our attention immediately. Corrections or clarifications will be made or the Herald may choose to run the announcement again in its entirety. However, announcements will not be reprinted when a lack of information has been supplied.

DE-ZION-ING WOMEN

1113 Shelby Highway

Kings Mountain's Premier Styling Salon

Tanning Bed Special

1 Month Unlimited Visits $30

350 Minutes $35.00

New Wolfe Tanning Bed • 26 Balirum Bulbs
- EXTRA WIDE BED - 739-0097

SAVE THE EARTH SPECIALS

An unprecedented collaboration. February 23, 24, 25

Captain Planet Sunday, 7:00pm	National Geographic Explorer Sunday, 9:00pm	The Cousteau Society Monday, 8:00pm
"One Child, One Voice" Sunday, 8:00pm	Network Earth Sunday, 11:00pm	World of Audubon Tuesday, 8:00pm

CABLE CHANNEL 12 TBS

Cherryville
435-5449

Kings Mtn.
739-0164

Curtain Factory Outlet

Special of the Week

Comforters

Special Selection

Full Size $19⁰⁰ • Queen Size $21⁰⁰

Queen Size Qualofill Pillows $6⁰⁰

Attention all 1992 Brides to Be
Register to win a comforter ensemble
to be given away, Sat., Feb. 29, 1992

CURTAIN FACTORY OUTLET

105 E. Virginia Ave., Bessemer City
629-5346 • Monday-Saturday • 9-5:30

Subscribe To The Herald