

Engagement

ROBIN MELISSA LINGERFELDT
MICHAEL ANDREW MOWER

Lingerfeldt-Mower

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Lingerfeldt of Kings Mountain announce the engagement of their daughter, Robin Melissa, to Michael Andrew Mower of Asheville, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Metcalf of Mill Spring and the late Raymond Mower of Craig, Colorado.

The bride-elect, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bridges of Kings Mountain and the late Leona L. Martin, is a graduate of Bessemer City High School and Central Piedmont Community College, where she earned an associate degree in physical therapy. She attends Asheville-Buncombe Technical College in Asheville and is employed by Thomas Rehabilitation Hospital as a licensed physical therapist assistant. She plans to enter physical therapy school in the fall. She was presented at the 1988 Shelby Junior Charity League Debutante Ball. At BCHS, she was a N. C. Academic All American Scholar, a cheerleader, in 'Who's Who,' and active in Junior Heart Board, Student Council, Monogram Club and Junior Civitan Club.

Mower is the grandson of Ina Jackson and the late Andy Jackson of Craig, Colorado and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Metcalf of Mill Spring and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Scott of Craig, Colorado. An honor graduate of Polk Central High, where he was president of the student body, he is a summa cum laude graduate of Western Carolina University with bachelor's degree in marketing and management. As WCU he was president of Sigma Phi Epsilon and was a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Beta Gamma Sigma and Order of Omega. He was coordinator of International Day at WCU in the spring of 1991. He is employed by Davis Electrical Constructors, Greenville, S. C.

The couple plans an April 11 wedding.

Parties honor bridal couple

Pre-nuptial parties honored Ginger Lee and John Webster recently.

A bridal shower was held at Unity Advent Christian Church in Four Oaks by Karen Parker, Gayle Lee and Kay McLamb with 30 couples showering the engaged pair with miscellaneous gifts. Burgundy cloths overlaid the refreshment tables and party refreshments were served. Out-of-town guests were the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Webster, of Kings Mountain.

Oak Grove Baptist Church Fellowship Hall in Kings Mountain was scene of a bridal shower honoring the engaged pair and attended by 60 guests. Della Bell, Marty Blanton, Kristy Caulder and Barbara Champion were hostesses and served party refreshments.

Aunts and uncles of the bridegroom-elect hosted a "handyman" dinner at Oak Grove Baptist Church Fellowship Hall for 70 members of the Ware family. Webster's place was marked with a hand saw. A handmade quilt, in the "Lone Star" pattern, was presented to the couple. The quilt was made by Webster's late grandmother, Mrs. Frank C. Ware, in March 1982 before her death in August 1982. Mrs. Ware quilted wedding presents for all her grandchildren.

Beth Wease, cousin of the bridegroom-to-be, hosted a Christmas shower for the couple and members of the Webster family presented ornaments and other decorations.

Aunts of the bridegroom-to-be, Pat Webster, Frankie Webster, Susan Webster and Becky Pruitt were hostesses.

A pantry and lingerie shower in Four Oaks at the home of the bride-elect's parents honored the bride-to-be. Hostesses were Tonya Deal, Darlene Langston, Julie Lee, Amy Parrish and Jennifer Wilks.

A Christmas shower was hosted at Campbell University by the bride-elect's roommates, Heather Nelms and Anissa Safriet.

Following the wedding rehearsal on Friday, December 13, the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Webster, hosted a dinner

Make a child's wish come true

United Way of Cleveland County is asking local people to assist Children's Make-A-Wish Foundation in helping a child's wish come true.

Seven-year-old Craig Shergold has an inoperative brain tumor. He collects business cards and wants to be included in the Guinness Book of World Records for having the largest amount of cards.

Cards may be mailed to Craig Shergold, Children's Make-A-Wish Foundation, 32 Perimeter Center West, Atlanta, Ga. 30464.

The Cleveland County Arts Council and Gardner-Webb Theatre have teamed up to bring Roadside Theater to Dover Theatre on the college campus in Boiling Springs. The one-night performance of "Pretty Polly" will be February 21 at 8 p.m.

Roadside Theater's production puts together tall tales, family remembrances and traditional Appalachian songs, accompanied by guitar and banjo, tell the story of Appalachian storyteller Polly Branham Johnson.

Margaret Ratterree will present the program on "Americanism" at Thursday night's meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary at 7 p.m. at the American Legion Building. Co-hostesses are Mallie Parker and Ruth Mayhew.

Mrs. Fran Sincox hosted the February meeting of the Kings Mountain Garden Club Wednesday at her home on Edgemont Drive. Upon arrival, members were served an attractive Valentine dessert plate of strawberry delight, cheese wafers and Russian tea.

A warm welcome was extended to Mrs. Carl Mauney, charter member and also life member of the club, and to Mrs. Carl Mayes, current member and charter member. Mrs. Mayes returned from her new home at The Pines in Davidson to share her large assortment of handmade seasonal decorations accumulated through the years.

Floral specimens displayed by members included Christmas cactus, jonquils and pansies.

Members discussed features of interest in the upcoming 32nd annual Southern Spring Show, such as the main promenade to be lined with Chinese elms and the special Tower of London display which will be surrounded by a 2,000
