Senior Games Monday at Gardner-Webb

The ninth annual regional Senior Games begin at Gardner-Webb College Monday at 8:30 a.m. with a Fun Walk for all participants.

One of the most exciting, healthful, and fastest-growing programs for senior adults in this area is the Senior Games program. Each spring older adults ages 55 and above from Cleveland and Rutherford Counties join together for recreation, competition, and fun. Senior Games is an exciting experience that many adults find challenging and motivational.

Opening ceremonies will be held at 10 a.m. in the college stadium. Track and field events will also be held on Monday morning. Lunch will be provided for participants after the morning events. Games for the afternoon are billiards and table tennis. Events for Tuesday are cycling, 5K and 10K runs, 5K race walk, golf, swimming and tennis. Wednesday games will feature shuffleboard, horseshoes, basketball shooting, and badminton.

On Thursday the featured events will be croquet, putt-putt, and bowling.

Closing ceremonies will be held in the Campus Center Banquet Hall at 7 p.m. Silver Arts performers will provide the entertainment. A reception will follow the presentation of awards.

Participants may still register at each event. Call Tracy Davis at 482-3488 for further information.

Tailenders move closer to Rednecks

The Tailenders eased a little closer toward the top in Mixed Duckpin Bowling League action Thursday night at Dilling Heating.

The Rednecks, who have owned a huge lead since the start of the second half, could manage no more than a split in their match with the Spades. But the Tailenders swept the Duckpins to pick up two more games on the leaders.

The Rednecks sport a 40-20 mark while the Tailenders are 31-29. The Duckpins are third at 26-34, followed by the Spades at 24-36.

Three bowlers topped the 300-set mark to lead the Tailenders to victory. Bill Myers rolled a 127 line and 362 set, Johnny Jones added a 125-332 and Joann Myers had a 118-321. John Caveny led the Duckpins with a 129-349, Bob Rathbone added a 133-337 and Jerome Grant had a 122-323.

Jack Barrett rolled a 143 line and 374 set and Tommy Barrett added a 117-335 to lead the Rednecks to a 2-2 split with the Spades. Dan Dilling led the Spades with a 121 line and 341 set.
