Members are spurred to serve

The Lay Witness Mission at Concord United Methodist Church was coordinated by Mike Crowell. Helen Bole was local chairperson.

Ruby Goff of Bessemer City said all who participated were touched by the spirit of God.

"There is much eagerness now in the church to serve the church and community, willing to share the experience and to work hard and sacrifice," she said.

Goff said that Charis Johnson, music director, has served faithfully for several years, but finds it necessary to resign. Camellia Wright will serve in this capacity.
