MRS. DANIEL CLAUDE WOODARD

Bolt-Woodard

First Baptist Church was the setting May 9 for the wedding of Rebecca Ann Bolt and Daniel Claude Woodard.

Dr. John W. Sloan was assisted by Rev. Stephen I. Warren, uncle of the bride, in officiating the ceremony for which music was presented by Michael Sisk, organist, and Mrs. Marjorie Jordan, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white taffeta gown designed with portrait neckline scalloped with Alencon lace. The wrapped collar formed a sleeve. The gown featured a fitted princess bodice with a deep Basque waistline overlaid with Alencon lace heavily embellished with seed pearls and iridescents. The Basque bodice featured a large butterfly bow. The full taffeta skirt was enhanced in the front with a deep pyramid of Alencon lace with beading. The full skirt flowed into a full Cathedral train with multi cutouts of Alencon lace with beading. The skirt and train were encircled with a deep border of Alencon lace. The fingertip veil featured lily of the valley flowers cascading off each side of a pearl crown. The bride carried a cascading nosegay with bridal pink and white Kuria roses, white Dendrobium orchids and Freesia.

Holly Elizabeth Dellinger of Kings Mountain was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joan Woodard Fulmer of Lexington, SC, Mrs. Laura Duncan McCarter of Gastonia, Miss Mary Eleanor Mitchell of Columbia, SC and Mrs. Kimberly Hawkins Vaters of Murrells Inlet, SC.

All the attendants wore tea-length dresses in a polished apple print with an off white background and multicolored flowers. They carried nosegays of multicolored flowers and wore off-white shoes. They wore pearl earrings, gifts of the bride.

Lauren Meredith Bolt of Macon, GA was child attendant.

Best man was Arlo Dean Woodard of Greenville, SC, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Jonathan David Bolt of Kings Mountain, Robert Earl Brewer of Lexington, SC, Phillip Nathan Vance of Greenville, SC, and David Allison White of Columbia, SC.

The bride's parents hosted the reception in the church New Assembly Room.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner May 8 in the church New Assembly Room.

Mr. and Mrs. James Arthur Bolt of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride, who is a 1984 graduate of Kings Mountain High School and a 1988 graduate of Clemson University with B.S. degree in Graphic Communications. She is employed at State Printing Company in Columbia. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey T. Cox of Seneca and Mrs. Arthur C. Bolt of Westminster.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Woodard Sr. of Lexington, SC. A 1983 graduate of Easley High School, he is a student at Midland Technical College and is self-employed. He serves with the Air Force Reserve and completed seven months duty in Saudi Arabia with Operation Desert Storm.

After a wedding trip to Aruba, Netherlands Antilles, the newlyweds are at home at 6379 Platt Springs Road, Lexington, SC.

MRS. MICHAEL SMITH

Todd-Smith

St. Mary's Chapel in Charlotte was the setting Saturday for the 1 p.m. wedding uniting Charlyne Todd and Michael Smith.

Rev. Angela Rogers, pastor of Mt. Zion Methodist Church in Cornelius, officiated the double-ring ceremony which included the lighting of the Unity candle.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal wedding gown of white bridal satin featuring a Sweetheart neckline with short lace sleeves. Matching tiers of lace enhanced the long skirt which had a sweep train encircled with matching Alencon lace. Her hip-length veil of illusion was draped from a white lace-trimmed hat. She carried a spring bouquet.

Lisa Pattison of Charlotte was matron of honor and Shelley Peterson of Greensboro was maid of honor. Karla Burnett of Spartanburg, SC., sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid.

The three attendants wore floral tea-length formals and carried spring bouquets.

Former Mayor Kyle Smith of Kings Mountain was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Mark Smith of Kings Mountain, brother of the bridegroom, and Chuck Todd of Charlotte, brother of the bride. Ushers were Lee Farris of Kings Mountain, brother of the bridegroom, and Jay Myers of Spartanburg, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride's parents hosted the reception after the ceremony, assisted by Just Us Catering of Kings Mountain, owned and operated by the bridegroom's mother. The pink and rose theme of the wedding was observed in decorative details at Mint Hill Masonic Lodge in Charlotte. White ruffled cloths overlaid the refreshment tables.

The bride is the daughter of Charles Todd of Myrtle Beach, SC and Dru Todd of Charlotte. She is a graduate of Independence High School in Charlotte and N.C. State University in Raleigh. Prior to her marriage she was employed as a Park Ranger in Mecklenburg County.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Billie Owens Farris and former Mayor Kyle Smith, both of Kings Mountain. A graduate of Kings Mountain High School and N.C. State University at Raleigh, he is a veteran of the U.S. Air Force. He is employed as a Park Ranger with the North Carolina State Parks at Pilot Mountain.

After a cruise to the Caribbean the newlyweds will reside in Pilot Mountain.

Song service

Allen Memorial Baptist Church in Grover on Long Branch Road will feature the Sounds of Praise and the Master's Singers at 2 p.m. after the morning worship at 11 a.m. and a lunch at 1 p.m. on Sunday. The public is invited.
