Sock Hop honors debs

A Sock Hop set the theme for a party-dance for 30 of the season's debutantes and their dates at Kings Mountain Depot Center Thursday night.

Hosts for the party were parents of Kings Mountain debutantes.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hoyle, Mr. and Mrs. Quay Moss, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob

Taylor served barbecue with all the trimmings and a debutante cake decorated in the 60's motif.

Colorful balloons, 1960-vintage pictures, and saddle oxfords decorated the party room and formed a background for dancing to music provided by DJ Kenneth Wilson.

A conversation piece was a table which featured baby pictures of the Kings Mountain debs and also pictures of the grown-up debs and their dates.

The Kings Mountain debs who received and greeted guests were Holly Harmon, Kimberly Hoyle, Genora Taylor, Emily Campbell, and Jennifer Summey.

The debs received handpainted rocks to be used for paper weights and pencil holder mugs, all decorated in the deb party theme and all of which decorated the tables.

Local debs and their escorts participated in a whirl of social activities during the weekend, culminating on Saturday night with the 1992 debutante ball in Vauxhall Center in Shelby.

Horse Show set June 27

The Central Piedmont Arabian Horse Association is sponsoring an open horse show on June 27 at Latta Plantation Park, Mecklenburg County, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Forty classes have been lined up beginning with Lead Line for 10 years and under riders and ending with non-trotting pleasure. In between a variety of classes are offered including halter, western, English and hunter events, along with equitation and costume. The non-trotting classes are for Paso Fino, walking horses, and racking horses.

The entry fee is $7 per class and stalls are available on a first come basis for $15 each for the day. Ribbons will be awarded through fifth place in each class. Judging the show will be Paul Bone. Show manager is Don Sherman and inquiries can be directed to 704-788-2084.

Spectator admission is free and concessions will be available. Latta Park is located on Sampel Road which is off Beatties Ford Road northwest of Charlotte.

The Central Piedmont Arabian Horse Association is a non-profit organization made up of approximately 150 members across the two Carolinas and Virginia.

Friends of Mauney Memorial Library will hold the annual meeting to elect officers Monday night at 7:30 p.m. at Weir Auditorium at the Library.

Vice-President Margaret McCarter will preside.

All members are invited to attend.

The Class of 1967 of Kings Mountain High School will hold the 25th year reunion August 15. For more information call 739-7208, 739-4789, or 739-2676.
