

Thieves hit Truck Plaza

Apparently hungry thieves broke into Kings Mountain I-85 Truck Plaza on Dixon Road Friday night or early Saturday and left with more than $1,300 in food.

Gary Noble told the Cleveland County Sheriff's Department that he found the locks on two coolers pried off at 12:20 p.m. Saturday. Among the items taken were four pies, three boxes of beef stew, 10 pounds of pork chops, four cases of chicken, four cases of sausage patties, eight boxes of cube steak, two cases of French fries, two boxes of flounder, two roasts, and a half a case of chicken livers.

Investigators have the description of a vehicle possibly involved in the break-in. No arrests have been made.

The 440th Army Band, North Carolina National Guard, will present a concert Sunday at 7 p.m. at Kings Mountain National Military Park Amphitheatre. The concert, free and open to the public, honors the millions who have served and are serving in the Armed Forces.

Army Band to perform at park

The 440th Army Band, North Carolina National Guard, will present a concert Sunday at 7 p.m. at Kings Mountain National Military Park Amphitheatre.

The concert honors the millions of men and women who have served and are currently serving in the Armed Forces of the Nation and commemorates over 200 years of independence this nation has enjoyed since the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776.

There is no admission charge and the public is invited. In event of rain, the concert will be held in the Visitor Center Auditorium at the same time.

The 45 members of the band represent many vocational and professional activities and its history extends to the America Revolution when fifes and drums were used. During the Civil War, bugles were added.

Chief Warrant Officer Michael C. Stevens has directed the band since 1947.

In 1978 the Band received the honor of serving as the Official Military Band for the United States Military Academy, West Point New York, for two weeks. It was the first National Guard band to receive this honor.

The world in a book

"The Whole World in a Book" is the theme of the summer reading club at the Mauney Memorial Library this year. There are many excellent books in the junior rooms about different cultures and countries. Here is a bibliography of fiction books about Latin America, Canada, and Alaska.
