

Beta Epsilon meets in Kings Mountain

The Beta Epsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held its annual planning meeting on July 9 at the Holiday Inn in Kings Mountain. Welcoming members to the 1992-93 planning meeting was President Hilda Leonard of Kings Mountain. Leonard also discussed the chapter's yearly goals.

Connie Phifer, Literacy committee chairman, discussed the plans for the local chapter's participation in the state literacy project, "Walk Across North Carolina," Sept. 26, 1992. The Beta Epsilon Chapter which includes members from Bessemer City, Cherryville, Kings Mountain and Lincolnton will hold their walk at Kings Mountain High School on Sept. 26. Funds raised from this will go to local literacy projects.

The members then divided into committees to set yearly goals. Members were present from Cherryville, Bessemer City, Kings Mountain and Lincolnton. Those members attending from Kings Mountain were Linda Humphries, Paula Goforth, Dianna Allen, Connie Bell, Diana Bridges, Judy Whisnant, Connie Phifer, Hilda Leonard and Margaret McGinnis.

McGinnis on Dean's List at Lenoir-Rhyne

Steven Gregory McGinnis of Kings Mountain was recently named to the Dean's List for the 1992 spring semester at Lenoir-Rhyne College in Hickory.

McGinnis was one of 171 students named to the honor roll. According to Lenoir-Rhyne registrar, Mary Hanson, the students qualified for the dean's list by compiling a 3.5 or better grade-point average, provided no grade was below a "C" and the student carried at least 12 hours of letter-graded courses.

McGinnis is a junior and is the son of Margaret McGinnis of Kings Mountain and the late Carl R. McGinnis.

Lenoir-Rhyne is a four-year liberal arts college and is affiliated with the North Carolina Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Local students on Dean's List at Gardner-Webb

Four students from Kings Mountain and two from Grover are listed on the honor roll and Dean's list for the spring semester at Gardner-Webb College.

Listed on the honor roll with a 3.5 grade point average with no grade below a C are Susan Belt, Kay Hambricht, Nicole Morris and Carla Ramsey, all of Kings Mountain, and Sandra Aaron of Grover.

Listed on the Dean's list with a 3.7 grade point average or better is Tracy Marie Morrison of Grover.

Michael Black in Who's Who

Michael Dale Black, KMHS senior, has been nominated to "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

He runs track and cross country, plays basketball, and is active in the Beta Club and Lettermen's Club. He is a member of First Baptist Church.

The honor is reserved for only five percent of the nation's high school students.

Black is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Beam of Kings Mountain.

Robert Smith III to study abroad

Robert L. Smith, III was selected as one of 10 students to study Italian architecture this summer in the Tuscany region of Italy.

In addition to architectural field trips, the students are remodeling an existing theater in the village of Bucine.

Smith graduated from UNC-Chapel Hill in 1986 and is currently a fourth-year architectural student at UNC-Charlotte. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Smith Jr. of Kings Mountain.
