INCIDENTS

First Citizens Bank & Trust, 403 S. Battleground, reported that two juveniles shattered bank windows. Officers chased the suspects but lost them in a wooded area off Cherokee Street.

Fraderick Lamar Burris, 19, of 407A Cherry Street, was treated at the hospital for wounds to his upper left shoulder after he was reportedly shot in the parking lot of Pine Manor Apartments. The suspect left the scene in an old-model Chevrolet pickup. Sgt. Derek Johnson and Ptl. Billy Fredell responded to the August 7 shooting.

Sgt. Raymond Garris said a fight took place on McGinnis Street August 8th and James David Duncan, 604 Bessemer City Highway, was treated at the hospital after a bullet grazed his right leg. "Several people at the scene were shoving each other around and the injured man at first refused treatment," said Garris.

Heidi Hamrick, 706 Landing St., reported that $400 damage was done to her 1985 Dodge by vandals damaging the left window and paint.

Phomy Inthavanh, 27 Chesterfield Apt., reported that vandals broke out two window panes at his apartment.

City police join task force

Kings Mountain Police Department has joined the 27-B Judicial District Task Force to target major drug offenders of the area.

A Governor's Crime commission grant will fund the operation of the task force to be called 27-B Drug Task Force.

Other participating agencies are Lincoln County Sheriff's Office, Lincolnton Police Department, Shelby Police Department, the District Attorney's Office of the 27-B Judicial District and the Southern Piedmont District of the N. C. Special Bureau of Investigation.

The task force will be conducting investigative activities related to the identification, arrest, and prosecution of persons involved in major drug violations. DA Bill Young will be working closely with the members of the task force in the preparation of the investigations for prosecution and the task force will be working with other Federal, State and local enforcement agencies to significantly reduce the importation of illegal drugs into the 27-B area.

The Board of Directors of the 27-B Drug Task Force will include Sheriff Joe L. Kiser of Lincoln County Sheriff's Office, Chief Terry Burgin of Lincolnton Police Department, Chief Warren Goforth of Kings Mountain Police Department, Special Agent-In-Charge James Woodard of the Southern Piedmont District of the State Bureau of Investigation and Bill Young, District Attorney of the 27-B Judicial District.

Goforth said public support for law enforcement efforts is essential. Persons having information concerning illegal drug activities are encouraged to contact their local law enforcement agencies. The number of the local Police Department is 734-0444. The 27-B Drug Task Force Agents can be reached by calling 482-2161.
