First Wesleyan sets homecoming

First Wesleyan Church, 505 N. Piedmont Ave., will be celebrating Homecoming on Sunday, Sept. 20. The special 10:30 a.m. service will feature Rev. J.W. Phillips as guest speaker and The Regals, a Southern Gospel group, will be in concert. There will be a special children's worship service taking place at the same time. Following the service, a covered dish luncheon will be served on the grounds.

FAUST

fore he preaches his first sermon. Faust has two younger sisters, one of whom resides about 40 miles from his new home. They are Frances Barger of High Point and Mary Garner of Morgantown, West Virginia.

"I have mixed emotions about leaving this place but also excitement at the challenges ahead," said Faust, recounting the happy memories. "I feel sincere gratitude and thanksgiving for having been a part of this town."

TEACH YOUR KIDS TEAM SPIRIT.

It's not just the stuff of locker-room rallies and chanting cheerleaders. It's the enthusiasm with which we worship God. And it's catching.

Your children can discover the great spirit of Christ's teachings every Sunday morning at the Church of the Nazarene.

Among friends who will treat them like family. In a place where they will be listened to as well as taught.

We want our Sunday School to be a special experience of joy and singing, hope and vision, adventure and growth.

The way Jesus of Nazareth would want it.

Join us.

Welcome to the Church of the Nazarene.
Our church can be your home.
