MRS. CLIFFORD JAMES MARR

Thomas-Marr

Shaws Creek Baptist Church at Hendersonville was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Elizabeth Ann Thomas and Clifford James Marr.

Rev. Ray Linville, former pastor of the church, officiated the ceremony.

Cindy Freeman was pianist, Nancy Demarest was organist and Annette Brown and Melissa Powell were vocalists for the program of nuptial music. Melissa Davis read the scripture.

The bride was given marriage by her father. She wore a formal design of white bridal satin fashioned with a portrait neckline which draped the shoulders giving the effect of a shawl collar over short puff sleeves. The contoured bodice was overlaid in silk Venice lace embellished with pearls and iridescents. A large butterfly medallion centered the neckline with pearls, crystals and bugle bead dangles. Small flowers studded with pearls were displayed in intricate patterns. A full floor length skirt flowed from the dropped basque waist. Reembroidered Venice lace motifs decorated the cathedral train. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, roses, lily of the valley and ivy accented with pink baby's breath.

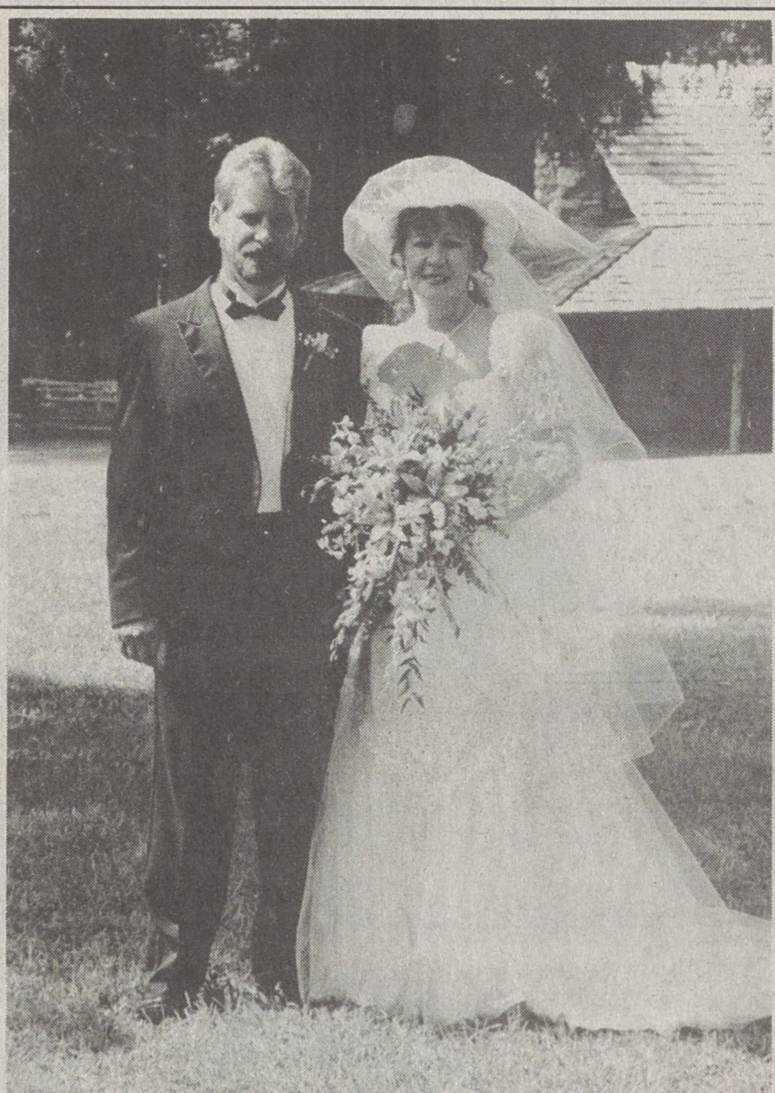

Patricia Bibb Kruse of Lynchburg, VA, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and Sandra Elaine Thomas of Knoxville, TN, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Julie Elizabeth Hendrix of Fayetteville, Leigh Drake Ambrose of Centerville, VA, Allison Anne Scobee of Chapel Hill and Mindy Erin Marr of Windham, Maine, sister of the bridegroom.

All the attendants wore tea-length gowns of fuschia with white Battenburg lace collars. They carried baskets of flowers in white, fuschia, purple, yellow and pink.

Lindsay Erin Brooks and Joe Dan Spearman, cousins of the bride, were children attendants.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY RICHARD CARROLL

Gore-Carroll

Betty Sue Gore became the bride of Larry Richard Carroll in a 12 noon garden wedding August 29 at History Living Farm.

Chris Gore gave his mother in marriage. Daughters of the couple, Wendy, Debbie and Jennifer were attendants and the bridegroom's sister, Fran C. Patterson, was matron of honor.

William C. Carroll was his son's best man. Ushers were Jeff and David Carroll, brothers of the bridegroom. Ringbearer was Caleb Carroll.

The wedding colors of pink and blue were beautifully featured throughout the grounds in decorative details.

A private reception was held following the ceremony.

Woman's Club plans Fall Festival for October 11

Plans are shaping up for the annual fall festival of the Kings Mountain Woman's Club to be held October 21 from 11 a.m.-8 p.m.

"A Southern Medley" will set the theme for the event, which will feature lunch and dinner, crafts, horticulture, antiques, and exhibits by local garden clubs.

The festival will follow the format of former fairs and will feature the ham and turkey with all the trimmings at the noon hour and the addition of oyster casserole for the evening menu. Serving of lunch will begin at 11:30 a.m. and serving of dinner will start at 5:30 p.m.

Sandra Murphey and Doris McGinnis are co-chairmen of the festival. Margaret McGinnis is chairman of arts and crafts; Judy Harmon is chairman of food and craft fair; Jessie Collins is ticket chairman; and Selena Trott and Glenda Coburn are co-chairmen of floral arrangements. Betty Gamble and Linda Dixon are chairmen of staging and Mary Weir and Bessie Bumgardner head up the cakes and pies committee.

Entries in the various events should be taken to the Woman's Club on October 20 from 3-8 p.m. or on October 21 from 8-10 a.m.
