National Honor Society plans special activities

The National Honor Society at Kings Mountain High School is presently planning and participating in many activities.

The KMHS charter has 26 active members, which is served by four officers and is advised by three faculty members, Mrs. Pam Goforth, Mrs. Sara Griffin and Mrs. Gay Henderson.

The purpose of the NHS is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of secondary schools. This purpose is being executed by participating in several service projects. In October, several members participated in the CROP Walk to fight world hunger. On December 9, 1992, the NHS sponsored a Christmas shower for the faculty and staff at KMHS. The shower allowed all staff members to enjoy fellowship and to contribute a toy which was given to a needy child in the community. The NHS provided guides for the recent Parent-Teacher Conferences at KMHS. These students helped parents find the correct classrooms during the conferences, which were held on Thursday, January 14 from 1-8 p.m.

Several new projects have been planned for the new year. A recycling project will be started to recycle the newspapers from the media center. By sponsoring a recycling project, the NHS can contribute to the actions of saving the earth. Fundraising will begin soon to raise money for scholarships to be awarded to NHS members. The NHS will be selling candy and will give away a dozen roses on Valentine's Day. The induction of new members is planned for April and a social meeting in May will conclude activities for the 1992-93 school year.

Members of the National Honor Society are Ginger Baity, Stephen Fisher, Todd Hagans, William Harrison, Jenny Krogulski, Ty Ross, Lindsay Suber, Chris R. Blanton, Sabra Gaffney, Jennifer Lynn Halter, Edie Hicks, Victoria Meiswinkel, Rebecca Senter, Todd Ware, Doug Bridges, Kathryn Goforth, Angela Hardin, Jill Jimison, Saher Saba Peters, Cari Sipe, Melanie Dixon, TG Goforth, Jacqueline Harmon, Stephanie Jones, Tosheen Peters and Michael Smith.
