

Two join Preparation Machinery Services

Preparation Machinery Services Inc. of Kings Mountain has announced the appointment of two men to the firm's management team.

Delburn Ezell, Vice-President of Sales, will direct a sales force covering markets in the southeastern United States. After holding management positions with Burlington Industries, he has been selling new and used textile machinery for the past 13 years. Ezell and his wife, Judy, have three daughters, Shannon, Allison and Amber. Originally from Marion, the family now resides in Moore, SC.

Stephen Padgett has been named Vice-President of Administration. He comes to the local plant from Sulzer Ruti, Spartanburg, SC, where he was Information Systems Manager. During a career spanning 30 years he worked with the development and adaptation of business activities as they relate to computers and information processing. He holds an MBA from the University of South Carolina and has experience in a variety of business environments including manufacturing, distribution, sales and service.

Preparation Machinery Services, Inc., 265 Kings Road, manufactures and sells automatic bale feeding, blending and electronic weighing machines for the textile industry.
