DR. J. G. WINKLER
Dr. Joseph Garland Winkler, 87, pastor of Central United Methodist Church from 1941-48 and a former Superintendent of Greensboro and Marion Districts in the Western North Carolina United Methodist Conference, died February 21, 1993 at Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte.

He was a native of Granite Falls, born October 5, 1905 to Poly T. and Mary Hartley Winkler. His wife, Kathryn Jones Winkler, died in September 1992.

Winkler earned degrees at Duke University and Emory School of Religion and received his Honorary DD degree from High Point University.

He served in the Western North Carolina United Methodist Conference from 1930 until his retirement in 1971. For six years he had resided at The Methodist Home in Charlotte.

His pastorates were Hiddenite and Cool Springs Circuits; First Methodist Churches of Maiden, Hickory and Hendersonville, Central Methodist Churches, Kings Mountain and Asheboro; Trinity-Kannapolis District Superintendent of Marion and Greensboro Districts; and was interim pastor of Central Methodist Church in Mooresville.

The memorial service was conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. at First United Methodist Church in Hickory. Dr. John Christy officiated, assisted by Dr. David Guy, Chaplain of The Methodist Home, Dr. Wilson O. Weldon, and Dr. Jim Gilliam.

Survivors include three nephews, Dr. Edgar H. Nease of Lake Junaluska, Rev. Colt E. Auten of Lancaster, SC and Charles R. Auten of Charlotte; and one niece, Mrs. Ray S. Wilkinson of Charlotte.

Memorials may be to First United Methodist Church, 313 3rd Avenue, N. E., Hickory, 28601.

IDA HOUSER

Mrs. Ida Gray Long Houser, 93, died February 17, 1993 at Kings Mountain Hospital.

A retired employee of Kings Mountain Hospital, she was a resident of Kings Mountain Hospital Extended Care.

A native of Gaston County, she was daughter of the late Robert W. and Ferrie Lee Hoffman Gray. She was the widow of Ben Long Sr. and Lloyd Houser. She was a member of Kings Mountain Baptist Church. She was a member of American Legion Auxiliary Unit 155.

Surviving are one brother, M. E. McKnight of Ocala, Fla. and two sisters, Elizabeth G. Bennett and Helen Lee Medlin, both of Charlotte; and four grandchildren.

The graveside service was conducted Saturday at 2 p.m. at Mountain Rest Cemetery by Rev. J. C. Goare.

FLOYD W. WHETSTINE

Floyd Wray Whetstine, 47, of 308 El Bethel Road, died February 23, 1993 at Carolinas Medical Center in Charlotte.

A native of Kings Mountain, he was married to Josephine Martinez Whetstine. He was son of the late Will and Beulah Wylie Whetstine. He was a self-employed carpenter.

Surviving, in addition to his wife, are two daughters, Jo Wray Whetstine and Rebecca Sue Whetstine, both of Kings Mountain; one brother, Johnny Whetstine of Kings Mountain; four sisters, Annie Mae Leigh, Inez Van Dyke, Margie Hurd and Pauline Hurd, all of Kings Mountain; and four grandchildren. He was a member of First Wesleyan Church.

The funeral will be conducted Thursday at 3 p.m. at First Wesleyan Church. Rev. Mark Bardsley will officiate. Burial will be in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Cleveland County, 201 W. Marion St. Shelby, 28150.

Facilities Center name changed to City Hall

City fathers gave City Hall its old name back Tuesday night.

The sign over the front entrance will be changed from Governmental Facilities Center to Kings Mountain City Hall.

Ward 4 Councilman Jerry White told City Council that "nobody knows what we're talking about when we say Governmental Facilities Center."

The other six members of the board agreed with White's motion and the action was unanimous.

Rev. Rex L. Allen, pastor of Cornerstone Church of God in West Palm Beach, Florida is evangelist for revival services beginning Sunday morning and continuing through March 5 at 7 p.m. at Family Worship Center Church of God.

The church is located at 1818 Shelby Road.

Pastor Rev. James Allen invites the public.

Jack Mercier is recuperating at his home at 400 Monroe Avenue from recent heart surgery. Friends may address cards to him at 400 Monroe Avenue, Kings Mountain, 28086.
