

Steak house to be sold

The old steak house on the one acre lot at the corner of East King Street and Piedmont Avenue will be sold at auction Tuesday, March 9, at 1:01 p.m.

Carolina Auction Team Inc. of Spartanburg, SC will conduct an "absolute" sale of the property which has been vacant for some time.

The property is being advertised as a prime location for a super restaurant, office, or retail operation with high visibility and easy access with plenty of parking space available.

The building is 6,159 square feet and has been formerly used as a restaurant.

Owners are offering financing at seven percent interest over a 15-year period after payment of 25 percent of the auction price.

The sale will be conducted rain or shine under a tent to be set up on the property.

Persons interested in the investment property may call a toll-free number, 1-800-292-9666.

School Board meets Monday

The Kings Mountain Board of Education will go over its preliminary budget for the 1993-94 school year and discuss the Performance Based Accountability Program at Monday night's meeting at 7 p.m. at the Superintendent's Office.

Other items on the agenda include announcements, comments from the community, recognition of the District Spelling Bell winner, recognition of the KMHS men's swim team, a report from the Calendar Committee, discussion of the April board meeting, appointment of a Board representative to the Lutz Foundation Scholarship Committee, approval of the Champions of Tomorrow Basketball Camp, student transfers and personnel.

Construction is completed

A 12-inch pipeline running from Turbo Road off Canterbury Road south across I-85 to York Road has been completed by city contractors working to complete major connections to serve the new Firestone/Bridgestone plant in Kings Mountain Business Park.

Making the final connections on the frontage road at Baucom Chevrolet was on schedule this week.

Pressure testing and chlorination was also being done and two crews were working on the installation of sewer lines to serve the plant.

City Engineer Tom Howard said that work is proceeding on schedule.

The city is providing water, sewer and gas service to the new plant which has targeted May for opening day.

Lewis Family at Ellenboro

The Lewis Family of Lincolnton, Ga., will be making their 24th annual appearance at the Ellenboro School Auditorium Sunday, March 14 at 2:30 p.m.

The Lewis Family was inducted into the Georgia Music Hall of Fame in 1992. The Lewis Family, stars of TV, stage and screen, is one of the most sought after gospel bluegrass singing groups in the country and will present just about every type of gospel song. Off state, the Lewis Family will meet many of their fans with their friendly Southern hospitality.

Admission is $6 and the door and $5 in advance. Admission is $2 for children ages 6-12, and is free for children under age six.

Proceeds go to the Oxford Orphanage. For information or advance tickets, call 704-453-7590.

Homecoming set at Pathway Baptist

Pathway Baptist Church will celebrate its 15th annual homecoming in an "old-fashioned way" March 7.

Rev. Willie Arrowood will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship hour. Dinner will be served in the fellowship hall at 1 p.m. and a singing service featuring "The Golden Valley Crusaders" will begin at 2 p.m.

Families, friends and former members are invited. All are invited to wear old-fashioned clothes.

Rev. James Hamrick is pastor.

A country breakfast and bake sale will be held Saturday from 6:30 a.m.-10 a.m. at El Bethel United Methodist Church. The public is invited.
