Babe Winhelman's Facts of Fishing

This tape teaches the basics of fishing and instructs the beginner on how to get started as well as basic tackle and skills.

Barabbas

This is the fictionalized story of Barabbas based on a fascinating passage in the New Testament. Anthony Quinn stars as Barabbas as he is set free while Jesus of Nazareth is crucified, and later on as he returns to his life of thievery, to finally discover his faith when he himself faces crucifixion.

The Bells of St. Mary's

Blessed with Oscar-nominated performances by Bing Crosby and Ingrid Bergman, this warm and witty comedy won the hearts of millions and carried an Academy Award for its director Lee McCary. St. Mary's parochial school is about to be closed due to lack of funds. When high spirited Father O'Mallary comes, it's the answer to everyone's prayers.

Blackbeard's Ghost

Peter Ustinov stars in this hilarious fantasy as the ghost of the legendary pirate Blackbeard.

Born Free

This wondrous true adventure from the best selling book about a lioness and the woman who raised her and eventually set her free, is beautifully photographed on the vast, golden savannas of Central Africa. This is a story of courage and love, nature and relationships unlike any other ever filmed.

Breakfast at Tiffany's

Winner of two Oscars, this romantic comedy sparkles like diamonds. The names of Audrey Hepburn and Holly Golightly have become synonymous since this dazzling romantic comedy was translated to the screen from Truman Capote's best selling novella.

Call Of The Wild

The Klondike gold rush into the forbidden frozen Yukon territory required one to be both brave and crazy to dare it. Charlton Heston plays John Thornton, a fearless man who is not after the elusive gold but works for the U.S. Mail and is the only person daring and smart enough to figure out how to travel the deadly 600 miles from Skagway to Dawson in the icy winter.

Can Can

Frank Sinatra, Shirley McClain, Maurice Chevalier and Louis Jourden sparkle in this film version of the hit Broadway musical with its Cole Porter score.

Carousel

Gordon MacRae and Shirley Jones experience the miraculous powers of love in this inspiring Rodgers and Hammerstein masterpiece.

The Count of Monte Cristo

This film follows closely the storyline of the epic Alexandre Dumas novel. Edmund Dantas, a young officer on a French ship, is entrusted with a secret mission by a dying captain. Separated from his sweetheart, arrested and imprisoned, he manages to escape and triumph over his enemies.

Cromwell

Seventeenth century Britain is a hotbed of revolution, treachery, and court intrigue. And standing in the center of this tumultuous story is Cromwell. Robert Harris stars in this dazzling historical epic as Oliver Cromwell, the fiery, ambitious commoner who took on the monarchy and almost single handedly changed the course of Western Civilization.

Daddy Long Legs

Fred Astaire becomes both the benefactor and suitor of Leslie Caron in this charming story of a playboy who falls under the spell of a beautiful French orphan.

While traveling through France, Jervis Pendleton III anonymously sponsors an 18-year-old girl named Julie whom he sends to college in America. Two years later they finally meet face to face and start to fall in love.

The Dove

He was the 16-year-old who came back a man when he set out to find himself and found the love of his life. He sailed the world alone in a 23 foot sloop and took with him the hopes and prayers of millions who followed media reports of his inspiring four-year journey.

Edison, The Man

Just as Edison lit up the darkened skies of New York City over 100 years ago with his amazing electric light. Spencer Tracy ignites the score with a powerful and touching portrait of America's most beloved scientific Wizard.
