

North School fourth graders recently observed Afro-American History Month. Moses Neuman (top photo), a native of Nigeria, spoke to the children about daily life in rural and urban Africa. He focused on similarities and differences from life in American. Children also enjoyed literature told by Bill Hager (bottom photo), Community Relations Director for Kings Mountain Schools. He spoke on how stories were passed down.

KM women recognized at meeting

Seven Kings Mountain women received recognition in the Professional Standards Program at the North Carolina Association of Educational Office Personnel's annual conference March 10-13 in Greensboro.

The Kings Mountain chapter has a membership of 26 and 12 Kings Mountain EOPs attended the conference.

Receiving certificates were: Lillian Hanks, Standard Certificate; Daphne Putnam, Associate Certificate; Carolyn Hicks, Advanced Associate I; Rachael Bolt, renewal of Advanced Associate I; and Vivian Duncan, Beth Eubanks and Delane Guyton, Advanced Associate III.

In addition to those receiving this recognition, also in attendance were Becky Scism, Annette Webster, Doris McGinnis, Sandra Bumgardner, and Barbara Starnes.

Kings Mountain EOPs were also recognized with 100 percent membership award.

The state organization has a membership of 3500. Over 1800 members attended the conference.

Keeter Ford Achievement Award winner

Keeter Ford of Shelby has been selected as one of the nation's outstanding Ford dealerships and will receive Ford Motor Company's Distinguished Achievement Award for Quality.

This award is presented "in recognition of progressive management, sound merchandising practices, high quality standards and continuing interest in rendering superior service to Ford owners."

Keeter Ford, a Ford dealer in Cleveland County since 1940, is located at 1775 E. Dixon Boulevard in Shelby.
